

Standing the strain

WHEN you give the playclothes problem the careful consideration it deserves—you invariably buy only such garments you believe will stand the strain of strenuous play. At each step in the making of "Bread Winner" playclothes this strain is considered. Each garment is reinforced where there is any considerable strain upon it, each garment is finished to the last detail of buttons, buttonholes and seams with the necessary care to withstand this strain.

You can buy our playclothes bearing the label "Bread Winner" with the positive assurance that you have purchased a garment that will absolutely satisfy. Made under the most sanitary conditions, for tiny tots in creepers up to boys of eight and girls of six.

Come into our children's washwear department and let us show you our full line of sturdy garments.

Baptist Church Notes
Preaching at 11 a. m., by Rev. V. M. Harper.
Sunday School at 10 a. m.
Rev. D. D. Proper was with us according to appointment and during the Sunday School hour gave a very instructive talk on the lesson from the point of home influence. His address on the New World Movement was enjoyed by all present.
The campaign started off nicely and every adult present gave a pledge. Owing to certain conditions it was thought wise to postpone further canvassing until the forepart of next week.

LOCAL BAPTISTS LAUNCH THEIR N. W. M. CAMPAIGN

With confident determination to carry their quota over the top on time, the Baptists of Webster county launched their New World Movement Campaign Sunday afternoon when the every-member canvass to raise the county's quota of $16,403 was started. The drive in this county is to be made under the leadership of J. M. Hewitt who says that although the membership in the county is only 155 the local leaders have confident hopes of meeting the quota. This means that each Baptist in the county will have to give more than $100 during the next five years. Of course many of them will have to give a great deal more than that. Such a contribution is almost staggering in comparison to previous efforts of the Baptist churches in Nebraska, but never have the Baptist people in this state responded with such unanimous enthusiasm and determination as they have to this, the greatest challenge in the church's history. "Nebraska Over on Time" is the slogan which the state organization has adopted for the campaign and reports at state headquarters show that the slogan was not ill-chosen, as the great bulk of the state's quota was subscribed in the every-member canvass Sunday afternoon. It is hoped that the balance of the quota for this county which still remains unpledged will be cleaned up this week and the county reported over the top next Sunday, May 2, the final day of the campaign.

As Others See Us

A stranger judges this town mainly by its appearance. If it is clean, sanitary and inviting, he carries the good word afar. But if it is dingy and ill kept, he carries the bad record to even greater distances. We should have a reputation second to none—superior to many—but we will have only that which we carve out by our own efforts. Let's all pitch in and make this the cleanest and the brightest and the most progressive year in our history.

The Cautious Elephant.

Ancient chronicles tell us that the Romans sometimes tested their military bridges by sending an elephant out on them and then watching to see whether the cautious beast would cross. Even to this day the natives of India set great store by the elephant's caution.

In The County Court Of Webster County, Nebraska

In the matter of the estates of Joseph H. Baker and Alice H. Baker, deceased.
To All Persons Interested In Said Estate.
Notice is hereby given that Anna A. Linderman has this day filed a petition in the County Court alleging that Joseph H. Baker died intestate, a resident of Webster county, Nebraska, on the 27th day of December, 1908, seized in fee of the following described real estate, to wit:
Lots 21 and 25 in block 1, Kaley and Jackson's addition to Red Cloud, Webster county, Nebraska, of the value of $300.00 and that it was the homestead of the decedent; that Alice H. Baker, was the widow of the decedent, never re-married, and departed this life March 26 1920, intestate, a resident of Webster county, Nebraska. Wherefore your petitioner prays that said estates may be probated as one estate, that the premises be declared of less value than $500.00, and exempt from creditors liens, and a decree entered determining heirship to said premises.
It is therefore ordered by the court that said petition be heard before the court at the county court room in the city of Red Cloud, Nebraska on the 7th day of May, 1929 at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., when all persons interested may appear and show cause why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted.
Dated this 8th day of April, A. D. 1929.

A distinguished concert by

Frieda Hempel
—the voice supreme

Prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York. The Soprano whose perfection of technique and greatness of soul have made her one of the truly distinguished figures of the American concert platform. Hear her!

MONDAY NIGHT, MAY 3rd
BESSE AUDITORIUM

Some artists are great of voice. Others are merely great of stage performance. To judge how great is Frieda Hempel, hear her outside of her physical presence. Hear her voice as it is literally RE-CREATED by the New Edison. Only then will you be able to appreciate fully its sublime beauty. It is actually true that music lovers have heard HEMPEL compare her voice with the New Edison RE-CREATION of that voice, and could distinguish no difference.

Come in and let us prove to you in this interesting way the greatness of Frieda Hempel.
