

Famous Old Barnegat Lighthouse Is Doomed

The United States bureau of lighthouses has ruled that Barnegat, the oldest lighthouse on the Atlantic coast, is no longer safe and must go, its foundation having been undermined by the sea. Barnegat has been featured in many works of fiction.

Sons of the Revolution at Mt. Vernon

A chief feature of the general convention of the Sons of the Revolution was a patriotic pilgrimage to Mt. Vernon. This photograph shows the members passing in review before the historic mansion.

Homes Given Free to Tenants

State officials in Chicago are encouraging the children to make homes for the insect-destroying birds instead of killing them. A lot of these houses and their makers are here shown, together with a view of one of the houses being placed in a tree.

DUTCH GIANT ARRIVES

This man of normal size tried to borrow a light from Mr. Van Albert of Amsterdam, Holland, while their ship was docking at New York. The Dutchman is 8 feet 5 inches tall.

Tom Watson and Grandchildren

Thomas E. Watson of Georgia and his two granddaughters. Mr. Watson contested the Georgia presidential primaries with Attorney General Mitchell and Senator Hoke Smith, and though he did not get the delegates, he had the largest popular vote.

MISS IRENE R. DINER

Miss Irene R. Diner, a New York school girl, who has created a sensation in industrial chemistry by her discovery of a new process in the manufacture of rubber.

Baby Specialists.

THAT there are Physicians who specialize on Infant ailments you know. All Physicians understand Infant troubles: all Physicians treat them. It is his profession, his duty, to know human ills from the Stork to the Great Beyond.

But in serious cases he calls in the Specialist. Why? He knows as every Mother knows, or ought to know, that Baby is just a baby, needing special treatment, special remedies.

Can a Mother be less thoughtful? Can a Mother try to relieve Baby with a remedy that she would use for herself? Ask yourself; and answer honestly!

Always remember that Baby is just a baby. And remembering this you will remember that Fletcher's Castoria is made especially for Infants and Children.

The False and the True.

Advertising by the use of large space, the expenditure of huge sums of money have placed on the market, have put in your home, perhaps, many articles that today have been discarded, as you will readily admit.

Do you recall anything that has more modestly appealed to the public than has Fletcher's Castoria: modest in all its claims, pleading at all times—and truthfully—for our babies?

The big spurge, the misleading claims may win for a time, but the honest truth-telling advertiser is like the old story of the tortoise that beat the hare.

Mothers everywhere, and their daughters, now mothers, speak frankly, glowingly, enthusiastically in praise of Fletcher's Castoria. Speak of it lovingly as a friend that has brought comfort, cheer and smiles to their little-ones.

There are substitutes and imitations as there are for the diamond, for anything of value. One might almost say that that which is not copied has no value. So you have had the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and a copy of the genuine wrapper kept constantly before you that you may guard against the false and the untrue.

MOTHERS SHOULD READ THE BOOKLET THAT IS AROUND EVERY BOTTLE OF FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Reasoning.

"Yes, doctor, I know the fish wasn't fresh, but it would have been entirely spoiled by the next day. I hadn't eaten it."

"Wouldn't it have been better to let the fish spoil than to upset your stomach?"

"Well, no. You can give me something to fix my stomach all right, but I'm blessed if there is anything you can do for a really spoiled fish."—Judge.

It sometimes happens that faith, hope and charity fill the stage to the exclusion of gratitude.

No, Harry, a man doesn't necessarily have paint in his eyes when he is color blind.

The Poor Thing.

Grace (all excited)—My dear, have you seen the latest wrinkle?
Belle (looking in mirror)—Where is it? I've just had a massage and the masseuse said she left no wrinkles.

A Lady of Distinction.

Is recognized by the delicate fascinating influence of the perfume she uses. A bath with Cuticura Soap and hot water to thoroughly cleanse the pores, followed by a dusting with Cuticura Talcum Powder usually means a clear, sweet, healthy skin.—Adv.

Many a man has wealth untold—to the tax collector.

The mantle of charity is soon worn threadbare by a hypocrite.

Adventures of a Piano.

An Englishman bought an upright piano at an auction sale 25 years ago for $80. It was, of course, second-hand. For a time it was used in a provincial kindergarten. It went to London and had constant use. When the war broke out it retired to a repository and did not see the light again until this year. Last month a maker of pianos called to see it, and offered $150 for it. The next day a man who overhauled it said he could get $250 for it cash down. The day after that a tuner considered it worth $300. The story is a striking illustration of changing values.

Many a man has been turned down while waiting for something to turn up.
