FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

SHIRLEY MASON in "MOLLY AND I"

Announcement is made by the management of the Orpheum theater that Miss Shirley Mason, the charming star, will be presented in a delightful comedy, "Molly and I" based on the successful novel, "Molly and I and the Silver Ring" by Frank R. Adams.

Miss Mason, as Shirley Brown, has one of the most lovable roles of her screen experience, and her work is said to surpass her best previous efforts. An unusually strong cast supports the delightful little star. Albert Roscoe, her handsome leading man, is described as happy in the character of the blind author for whom Shirley fights hard and determinedly; and the other parts are in very capacity.

Howard M. Mitchell, who has directed many Fox success, directed "Molly and I."

ALSO A TWO-REEL SUNSHINE COMEDY "PRIVATE HUSBAND"

Prices 10c and 25c, including war tax
First Show Starts at 7:30

Nebraska Legionnaires are jubilant over the excellent showing their state made in the recent national membership drive. Nebraska ranked second, closely following New Hampshire which won first honors. A telegram was received this week at State Headquarters at Lincoln announcing the returns and congratulating the Nebraska soldiers on their record. Massachusetts came in third, California fourth, Kansas fifth, Ohio sixth, Illinois seventh. The Nebraska Department of the American Legion now has over 270 posts, thirty women's auxiliaries and over 20,000 members. Every county in the state with the exception of two have one or more posts.
"SOLDIERS OF FORTUNE"
Richard Harding Davis
Just Red-Blooded Adventure!
This is the greatest Davis book by far and we think Allan Dwan has made it his greatest photoplay. It is the first REAL-ART Special—and that is saying a whole lot, for a large film company could not afford to go wrong with its first special release. "Soldiers of Fortune" is chock full of love, adventure, mystery, raids, rescues and fearless riding. There are literally hundreds of daring horsemen in it. The locale is the plains of Central America, alive with romance. The hero—Clay, dare-devil American engineer—is played by Norman Kerry and the Girl—Alice Langham—by Anna Q. Nilsson. Besse Auditorium tonight.
Memorial Services Held in Auditorium Sunday
The annual Memorial services were held in the Besse Auditorium last Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, the same being well attended by the citizens of the city and community. Several of the Old Veterans, Ladies of the Relief Corp and members of the American Legion were present to pay tribute to the memory of their departed comrades.
Reverends Marpl. O. Lincoln, Beebe, Cope and Jarboe, the choir and the pianists Mrs. N. E. Bush and Miss Verna True occupied the stage.
After a selection by the chorus Rev. Beebe offered prayer followed by a duet, "Each Shall Feed His Flock," by Mesdames H. C. Gellatly and Frank P. Hughes. Rev. Jarboe then read the scripture lesson.
Rev. Cope, in his usual interesting and pleasing manner addressed the audience, selecting for his text: 11 Tim. 2:4: "No Man that Warreth Entangleth Himself with the Affairs of This Life, That He may Please Him who Hath Chosen Himself to be a Soldier."
The services were brought to a close by the audience singing "America" After the benediction was offered the audience remained standing while the soldiers marched out of the edifice.
Incomplete Diagnosis.
Jack, aged three, went to see his new little cousin. When he came home his mother asked him how the baby was and what it was. He replied: "Oh, mother, they of a nice little dollie, but I can't tell you what it is, because she didn't have any hair yet."

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

To Our Subscribers
On and after the 10th day of June the subscription price of The Red Cloud Chief will be $2.00 per year payable in advance. The ever increasing cost of producing a newspaper—labor, ink, paper, type, etc.—makes it necessary for us to make this additional charge of 50c per year. The Western Newspaper Union has twice in the past eight months raised the price of stock and ready prints, with the third raise scheduled for the first of June. Although material and paper has doubled in cost, and in some cases trebled we are making an attempt to meet this raise with only a fifty cent increase in subscription price.
Mrs. Ralph Shepherdson went to McCook Thursday. Mr. Shepherdson has accepted a position with the Burlington at that place.
