The Board agreed to allow the bill of Gaston Music Co. for $10 for moving piano for Miss Owen at the recent school entertainment.

The secretary made a report of Commencement exercises showing a net profit of $143.33 after all bills were paid.

Joe Barta was allowed $100 per month, or full time, for his services as janitor of the Washington, and Junior High school buildings for the coming year.

Board adjourned to meet on Monday, July 5th.

C. J. POPE, Secretary

THE CITY COUNCIL

The City Council met in regular adjourned session on Friday evening, at which time they proceeded to repeal the two paving ordinances covering Paving Districts No. 3 and 4, owing to the fact that the amounts called for therein were found not to be a multiple of twenty, which did not permit, since the bonds are to consist of denominations of $1000.00 each, of retiring one twentieth a year after five years. They then proceeded to pass two new ones.

Before adjourning the estimate of expense for 1920 was submitted and ordered published and the following claims were allowed:

American Ins. Co.	$ 107.00
C. F. Evans	21.85
O. C. Teal	12.25
L. B. Electric Works	185.97
Watts Construction Co.	299.09
W. D. Edson	12.00
Watts Construction Co.	100.74
Grant, Fulton & Letton	192.31
Grant Fulton & Letton	551.41
Grant Fulton & Letton	9.87
Watts Construction Co.	6510.21
Watts Construction Co.	18380.29
Watts Construction Co.	329.00
C. T. Dickinson	10.75

An Esential Institution

A movement is under way for the erection of a hospital in Red Cloud. To date it is only in the preliminary stage, but considerable interest is being shown by several of our prominent citizens and without a doubt the work will be carried through in the near future. Our present hospital is not of sufficient capacity to take care of the many emergency calls and something should be done in the matter. We already have the medical and surgical skill and should have accommodations for their patients.

Chautauqua Dates July 25-31

Owing to the fact that the duties connected with the county attorney's office occupies all of his time, Atty. H. S. Ege, formerly local manager of the Red Cloud Chautauqua, has found it necessary to turn this responsibility over to another party. Prof. Holtzen kindly consented to act in his stead.

The Professor informs us that the Midland Chautauqua Company are scheduled to appear in Red Cloud July 25 to 31, inclusive. He has been instructed to announce that a very fine series of programs has been arranged, and that they will surpass those formerly presented here. Further information concerning the same will be published in the local papers at an early date. Watch for the announcements.

James H. Robinson

On Monday evening James H. Robinson, who had been in poor health for several months, passed away at the home of his son, Arthur, who resides west of town.

The deceased was born in Illinois February 23, 1853, and was 67 years old at the time of his demise. Mr. Robinson was one of the old settlers of this county and resided in Garfield township for many years, after which he moved to Red Cloud and conducted a restaurant here. Since the death of his wife a few years ago he has been making his home with his children. During his many years of residence in this county he made many friends, being industrious, courteous and a true friend to all those whom he came in contact. His many friends will be deeply grieved to know of his passing.

One son, Arthur, and one daughter, Mrs. Rube Schultz, are left to mourn his demise.

The funeral services were held this afternoon at the Methodist church, Rev. Cope in charge, after which interment was made in the Martin cemetery.

Charles H. Smith

Charles H. Smith, one of the pioneer citizens of this community, passed away at the home of his son, at an early hour Monday morning.

The deceased was born in Milford, Connecticut, November 26, 1836. In 1858 he moved to Iowa where he was united in marriage to Sarah Skidmore in 1860. To this union were born six children, four having died in infancy, and one son, E. W. Smith passing away in 1916, at Clayton, Kansas.

In 1875 he came to Nebraska and for a number of years residing in Red Cloud. A few months ago he and his wife went to the Old Soldiers Home at Grand Island. Recently he returned to this city for a visit with his son, C. M. Smith, and while here was taken ill. He is survived by his wife and one son, C. M. Smith.

Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church, Wednesday morning, Rev. J. L. Beebe in charge. Interment was made in the North Branch cemetery.

Kay Davis who resides south of this city was quite severely injured Wednesday while operating an over-shot stacker. We have not learned the extent of his injuries, but hope they are not of a serious nature.

The home of Rev. J. L. Beebe was the scene of a wedding ceremony, last Thursday evening, which made Paul Buckles and Miss Ellen Anderson husband and wife. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Anderson of Cowles. The man of her choice is the youngest son of Mrs. J. F. Buckles. Both these young people have a host of friends to wish them a happy married life. They were united on the Buckles.

Pathe Phonographs

Conceived in Paris decades ago and delicately perfected as time went on, Pathe music has long enjoyed the approval of our musically fastidious allies.

Ears that would be distraught by the blair of the "talking machines" have welcomed the jeweled music of Pathe.

It is the romantic belief of poets that in their encirclings through space the stars made musical their passage. The "music of the spheres" may be on a grander scale but it is not more bewitching than the music of that tiny sapphire ball which glides around its appointed orbit on a Pathe Record.

In contemplating the more sophisticated mechanism of Pathe one should remember that there are two ways of considering recorded music. One is that it is a sort of science. The other that it is Art.

The pseudo-scientist uses points, needles, which rip sound out of the record. The Artist is gentler; he uses a perfectly rounded sapphire which by mere touch releases music. Music must be wooed, not gouged; and we know that this matter may be safely left to the verdict of your ears once you hear Pathe
