Auto Races at State Fair

Officially opening the Fifty-Seventh Nebraska State Fair, a coterie of speed demons, attracted from all parts of the United States by the heavy purses hung up for fast driving, will attempt to lower present track records and thresh out a few disputes between themselves as to the leaders in the gasoline world. When they nose the radiators of their half-score of cars to the starting line on the afternoon of September 6, while they wait for the flag that starts the big events, everything indicates the start of one of the fastest afternoons of sport ever witnessed in this section.

Chief among the drivers who rank high in the speed world and who will pilot their cars about the Lincoln oval will be Sig Hugdahl, present world dirt track champion; Fred Horey, former worlds champion who will attempt to regain the honors taken from him by the little Scandinavian; Burr Lampkin, British speed star who is adding laurels of this country to those he has established in the old world; Ray Claypool, who though a youngster, is grayhaired, indicative of the tenacious of the sport; Dave Koetzla, holder of the worlds hour record, and others. Time trials, match races, three cornered fights and a long distance grind are on the program and entries have assured all of these. In addition to the other prizes offered, there is a special purse to the driver making the fastest mile in the time trials, and for the breaking of present track records.

With promises that the Lincoln track, known as one of the best dirt ovals in the middle west, will be in tip top shape for the speed battles, present records, not only of the track but of the section, are due for a fall when this array of kings in the world of speed go thundering about the track.

INAVALE

The Fat Lady entertained on the north porch. The Artic Monkey displayed almost human intelligence. The photograph gallery did a thriving business. Large crowds attended the successive showings of the one reel movie thriller: "A Trip Around the World." Potted plants were on sale and for refreshments generous helpings of ice cream, cake, peanuts and pop corn were offered to all. Joe Gurney was the special police who was the terror of all would-be evil doers. The proceeds of the carnival go to the building fund of the church.

Matter of Meals.

While in the largest cities it is a fact that the heaviest meal of the day occurs at night, it is also a fact that in the smaller cities, of 200,000 population and below, the heaviest meal occurs at noon. The reason for this is, of course, that in the largest cities there is an exodus at evening to the suburbs, where the family reunion is held over the dinner table, whereas in the smaller cities people are able to go home to midday lunch.

Will Forgey Dead

William Forgey, who has been on the sick list for the past three years, passed away last Saturday afternoon August 21, 1920, at the Perry Beardslee home in this city.

The deceased has been a resident of this county for the past forty years, residing most of that time on a farm 11 miles northeast of this city. He was a good citizen and good neighbor and counted his friends by his acquaintances. He was about 60 years old, and besides a wife, many relatives and friends are left to mourn his death.

The funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon by M. J. Hibbs, Christian minister of this city, after which the body was laid to rest in the Highland cemetery, beside his first wife, who preceded him a few years ago.—The Lebanon Times.

John Betz Dies

John Betz was born January 2, 1838 in Allegheny county, Pennsylvania and died peacefully at his home in Culbertson, Nebraska, August 16, 1920.

On the 25th of July, 1861, he united in marriage with Elizabeth Matkin. Seven children were born to this union, three of whom, with his wife, preceded him in death.

Later leaving Pennsylvania he moved to Missouri. Upon leaving that state he settled in Johnson, Nebraska and from there to his present home in Culbertson, Nebraska.

He enlisted in the Civil War, August 1, 1862. He was a member of Co. D, Capt Van Hise, 106th Inf., Vol. Inf., Col. Latham, serving 392 days. He was in a number of skirmishes and also forty days in the famous siege of Vicksburg. His shelter at night was a gum tree, and if it did not awaken at daylight a mocking bird would waken him each morning. He was mustered out on Schneider Bluff landing, Mississippi.

On November 11, 1902 he was united in marriage to Laura Grove. No children were born to this union. He leaves to mourn his departure his loving wife, 3 children, 1 brother, 2 sisters, 7 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren, besides many friends.

Funeral services were held in Culbertson Tuesday, Rev. P. M. Goeppfert, officiating and his body laid to rest in Riverview cemetery, McCook, that afternoon.—McCook Republican.

The deceased was the father of J. E. Betz of this city.

Amber Beads Long Popular.

The superstition which clings to the meaning of beads is of ancient origin. The custom of wearing an amber necklace was immensely common, and is not yet extinct among old women in England. The amber, when heated sends forth an agreeable perfume. In olden times it was the present made by a mother to her daughter on her wedding eve.

Protect School Books.

Cover the children's schoolbooks with either stiff paper or cloth so they will last the year and be in condition for the next in the family who will need to use them.
