

Listen, good friends, and you shall hear why some Cigarettes are so all-fired dear

SOME cigarettes are packed in pretty boxes that certainly don't grow on trees. Next, they're dolled up—and flavorings are sure getting expensive. And then, they're priced a bit high so they'll seem "exclusive." But read how Spur Cigarettes offer the highest possible quality at the lowest possible price:

If there are any finer tobaccos from the Orient and the good old U. S. A. than those selected for Spurs, they must be a secret that the world has never heard. And when we got these combined in Spur Cigarettes, what do you suppose was the result? Just the best taste and aroma that any cigarette could give, and Willie Doll-up or Freddie Flavoring hadn't a thing to do with it.

Spur is "class" all through—even to the smart "brown-and-silver" package, triple-wrapped, that keeps Spurs fresh and fragrant. Try out a package of Spurs. You'll say "made and priced for popularity."

TRULY GRATEFUL
Omaha, Nebraska
August 26, 1920
Mr. A. T. Holtzen, Chmn.,
Near East Relief,
Webster County,
Red Cloud, Nebr.
My Dear Mr. Holtzen:
Hooray for Webster County! We are mighty glad to have your letter with the good news that Red Cloud is shipping fourteen boxes of clothing for Armenia.
We have instructed the Jordan Van Company, which does our hauling, to watch out for these at the freight depot and deliver them at the auditorium where we are having our packing done in the basement. We are on the last lap of our first car load ready to ship now any day.
We surely thank you and the other good people of Nebraska who made this possible and have contributed such splendid clothing. Practically nothing has been thrown out, which I must say is something unusual in a clothing drive of this kind. When we were at the N. E. R. conference in June, in talking about this clothing drive, which is nation-wide, they stated that last year Pennsylvania sent five car loads, and Mr. Fowle, Secretary of Foreign Department in the New York office, said that about two car loads of that had to be discarded as useless, because it had not been well sorted and packed. We are doing all this here but find very little to throw out.

Sincerely yours,
CHAS. M. WILHELM,
Secretary
