INAVALE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION
 The Executive Committee of the Inavale Library Association decided at a meeting held Monday evening to open the Reading Room Wednesday evening, October 13. The building just west of the present post office has been secured for the Library and Mrs. Guy Barker will be the Librarian. A traveling library set has been received from the State Library Commission. A small number of books have already been given to the Association as a nucleus for a permanent library. Those who are interested in the success of the library can materially assist by the donation of good books. Those who have signed membership cards for the Association and who have not paid their dues should hand the same to the secretary-treasurer, Rev. Schofield, at once. All who have not yet joined the Library Association are invited to support the library by joining the Association. The dues are 25 cents per month. The Reading Room still needs to complete its furnishing, comfortable chairs, pictures for the walls and magazines for the reading tables. Bring your magazines to the Reading Room when you have read them and share them with your neighbors. An arrangement has been made whereby patrons of the Inavale Library can draw books from the library in Red Cloud through the Inavale library. For further information see the Librarian.
INAVALE
 Wednesday the men of Inavale staged a Pick and Shovel Bee at the Methodist church. Between twenty and twenty-five men came with shovels and teams and attacked the dirt under the church. Before night most of the excavating for the new basement had been completed. The work will be finished Thursday and immediately after that the remainder of the foundation will be laid. Within the next week or two invitations will be issued to all who wish end of a hammer should drive a nail to meet for a "pound party," to pound nails into the addition that is to be built on the south side of the church. The ladies brought cheer and encouragement to the men at work Wednesday in the shape of a bountiful dinner served at noon and lunch served in the middle of the afternoon.

THE WALLIS

AMERICA'S FOREMOST TRACTOR

Farm Power in Simplest Form—A simple, dependable machine requiring least repair and adjustment is the most economical and easiest to handle—thus it is the one that is becoming the leader in the tractor field.

The Wallis is 12 years old and has stood the test of time. It has been tried on thousands of farms all over the world. It is sold by a company established half a century—known for its integrity and square business dealings.

When considering the cost of a tractor don't overlook these important points—FUEL, LUBRICATION, UPKEEP, SPEED, WEIGHT, DURABILITY, POWER, ASSESSIBILITY and SIMPLICITY. The principal element is the life of the tractor, plus the upkeep during its life.
