Answers A. C. Potter's Article

Omaha, Nebraska,
Oct. 18th, 1920.

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF,
Red Cloud, Nebraska.

Gentlemen:—
I read the article in The Argus, under date of Oct. 14th by A. C. Potter, and I have no regrets that I do not know the gentleman. I note, on another page of this same issue, the Argus apologizes for the contents of the same and well it should.

In the first half of this article, Mr. Potter places President Wilson, as a man seeking the Presidency of the World, and having a great plan of ruling the world and having it do his bidding, and then winds up his article by saying President Wilson planned to hand this country over to European Rule and Control. Which statement, Mr. Potter, do you stand by? Your editorial sounds like a Harding Speech. It was a great calamity that the U. S. Senate did not have you to advise it on the plans of President Wilson before he got so far with them.

I heard Mr. Harding speak, and make the statement that he did not consider himself a big enough man to run the Presidency of the United States. He did not have to tell us, for we can see that he is not man enough to run his own campaign. He endorses men, and in return is endorsed by them, that make statements such as, "If Jesus Christ was on this earth, today, and endorsed the League of Nations, I would be against it." I, along with seven-eighths of the people of the U. S. would be proud to have the President of our Country, President of the League of Nations, whether he be Republican or Democrat. You are one of the few who would be proud of it, if he were a Republican, but would ruin your own country, to keep a Democrat from holding such an office. If you had written your first article before Mr. Wilson went to France, instead of after, I imagine the Senate would have given your article, "deep thought" and stopped Mr. Wilson. By your article instead of raising yourself in the opinion of those you meet on the street, everyday, you have belittled yourself, and only a few to be classed along with Senators Johnson and Borah, would endorse such an article. My one hope is, that you meet on the street, everyday, you have belittled yourself, and only a few to be classed along with Senators Johnson and Borah, would endorse such an article. My one hope is, that

Yours truly,
W. R. BAILEY

Preaching service at Congregational church every Sunday morning by Rev. Mary H. Mitchell. Sunday school at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Gertrude Fuller of New York City will speak in the interest of the Democratic party in this city Monday. Don't fail to hear her.

Judge H. S. Duncan spoke to an attentive audience at the court house Saturday evening. While the crowd was not large it was the average crowd for political meetings this year. The judge set out clearly to the audience why we should enter the League of Nations. We heard many remarks of approval after the meeting was over. Judge Duncan will get a good vote in this part of the district. Read his platform which appears on another page of this issue.

Edith L. McKeighan, Clerk of the District Court, who is a candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket, has during her incumbency of office carried out the duties faithfully and efficiently. She has employed assistance at her own expense in order that the records might be kept in a satisfactory manner. The work of this office requires experience and a knowledge of the practice and procedure of the court. Miss McKeighan is capable, possesses the necessary knowledge and is in every way qualified to fill the office to the satisfaction of the public.

BE NOT DECEIVED

IN DAYS GONE BY THE VOTER HAS BEEN CLEVERLY DECEIVED AND SEDUCED AT EVERY ANGLE BY "WIN WITH WILSON" AND "HE KEPT US OUT OF WAR." IN FACT, SO BRAZEN HAS BECOME THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION IN THEIR USURPATION OF POWER AND SO COMPLETELY HAVE THEY FAILED IN FULFILLING EVEN THE MOST MINUTE PART OF OFT REPEATED PROMISES, IT WOULD SEEM THAT IF EVER A COMPLETE CHANGE, FROM CELLAR TO GARRET, WAS NEEDED 'TIS NOW. WITH THIS END IN VIEW, WE SOLICIT YOUR SUPPORT FOR THE FOLLOWING CANDIDATES, ASSURING THE ELECTORATE THAT BY SO DOING THEY WILL NOT BE IMPOSED UPON, AND WILL HAVE REMOVED ALL CHANCE OF AGAIN BEING FOOLED:

W. E. Andrews

FOR CONGRESSMAN 5th DIST.

Congressman W. E. Andrews' experience and training in national affairs has qualified him, exceptionally well for efficient service as a member of congress. A new member could not acquire the same degree of efficiency without many years of hard labor. We should not exchange experience and efficiency for inexperience and inefficiency at this time. Neither should we trade Republicanism for Wilsonism.

VOTE FOR W. E. ANDREWS

Lewis H. Blackledge

FOR DISTRICT JUDGE

The fact that Attorney Blackledge is a home man and thoroughly qualified is in itself sufficient reason why he should have the support of voters of all parties. His twenty one years residence in this county, where he has practiced law, reads like an open book and that his friends are legion was clearly demonstrated in his recent bereavement—the loss of his wife. Webster is the second county in the district for population, and has never had the judge, while Adams county has enjoyed this distinction for the past thirteen years and the north part of the district for seventeen years. Surely it is our turn now.

VOTE FOR LEWIS H. BLACKLEDGE

R. B. Thompson

FOR REPRESENTATIVE 46th DIST.

Mr. Thompson's success in the handling of his personal affairs is in itself sufficient recommendation of the manner in which he will look after and guard the people's interests when elected to the place which he aspires. He has been a resident of Webster county for forty years and is a man of broad experience, wide awake and energetic. A vote for Mr. Thompson is a vote for efficiency in public affairs.

VOTE FOR R. B. THOMPSON

Clara McMillan

FOR CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT

In presenting the candidacy of Clara McMillan for the office of Clerk of the District Court, it would seem superfluous to dwell at any length upon her qualifications. During her years of residence in the county she has become known to all as a woman in whom confidence and trust can be reposed and in every respect is thoroughly competent to creditably fill the position to which she aspires.

VOTE FOR CLARA McMILLAN

M. F. Rickard

FOR SENATOR 20th DIST.

Mont. M. F. Rickard has been weighed and found not wanting. He has served, with credit, the past two terms in the legislature and as this next session, owing to the new amendments recently adopted, is one which can be better handled by a man like Mr. Rickard, who is "onto the ropes," the voters will make no mistake in his re-election. The State Hall Insurance bill, which has proven a great source of material benefit to the farmers, was of his creation and tends to strengthen his candidacy.

VOTE FOR M. F. RICKARD

T. J. Chaplin

FOR COMMISSIONER 1st DIST.

T. J. Chaplin is another man who has been tried and proved. In previous years, while filling this office, he was found giving his best efforts for the welfare of the county and is one who is entirely fitted by experience to handle public funds in a manner beneficial to all. He is easily approached, yet possesses that tendency to carefully weigh matters from all angles before making a decision and the voters will make no mistake in returning him to his old job.

VOTE FOR T. J. CHAPLIN

H. H. Crowell

FOR COMMISSIONER 4th DIST.

Henry Crowell, president of the Farmers' Union, and candidate for Commissioner from the 4th District, is a man possessing all the essential characteristics necessary for ideal commissioner timber. He is a successful farmer of wide experience, careful and prudent, yet not so conservative as to be classed as unprogressive. He will see that county funds are used to a proper advantage and you will make no mistake in giving him your support.

VOTE FOR H. H. CROWELL

C. F. Rudd

FOR COUNTY ASSESSOR

In C. F. Rudd the voters have a man who has proven himself to be a successful farmer, consequently possesses a thorough knowledge of farm values. Mr. Rudd has the courage to adjust values properly and his sound judgment makes him a safe man to rely upon to determine square and fair assessments.

VOTE FOR C. F. RUDD

Respectfully Submitted,

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE
