JOHN L. CHRISTIAN

John L. Christian of Red Cloud, Nebraska, has passed to the other side.

He was born in Atchison county, Missouri, on December 28th, 1855 and lived in this county until 1911 when he removed to the city of Red Cloud, Nebraska, where he lived till his death which occurred October 21th, 1920.

He was laid away by his old friends of an earlier day, upon his former home grounds near the city of Tarkio.

The name "Christian" ranks in the front, among a few grand old families that are honorably and inseparably blended with the history of Atchison county. John L. Christian was a big member of this family. He was a big man wherever he was, at home or elsewhere, a masterful man in all the walks of life. He was fearless to a fault. He was insistent and contentious for his ideas of right, yet kindly disposed and forbearing. He was both feared and respected by his enemies if he had any, but it was no fault of his if he had an enemy, for he never harbored ill will to any for any length of time. He feared no man, but preferred to render a benefit rather than injury to any and all. His judgment was sought by many and philosophic counsel was heeded by all. He was a big man among his many friends in all the humble walks of life, and so highly was he prized that he was called in counsel by the Governor of his state. He always endeavored to brighten up the corner where he was, and taught all to look on the bright side and not give way to worry.

He was a Democrat, and served 6 years as a member of the State Democratic Central Committee under the administration of Gov. Lon V. Stephens. He was a member of the State Board of Agriculture. He was a warm personal friend and confidential advisor of Gov. Joseph W. Folk. No man ever ranked so high that John L. Christian was not welcomed to his innermost circle, and no man ever fell so low by misfortune or even crime but John L. Christian would be among the first to extend the hand of welcome, back to favor, fortune and rectitude.

His first love on this earth was his own family, his second love was his father's family, after which his friendship was valuable to all with whom he came in contact. No distance was ever too great, no weather too cold or night too dark for John L. to arise and go to the call of a Christian in distress.

On March 28, 1876, he was married to Martha Haffner, who, with their sons, Floyd, their daughters, Hattie, Minnie and Mary of Red Cloud, Nebraska, and their daughter, Mrs. Wade Tate of Tarkio survive him, and they have the profound sympathy of their many friends in this county.

County School Notes
(By County Superintendent)

The Farmers' Institute was very well attended. Some of the exhibits were very good indeed, but the teachers in most cases made excuses showing that they can get better work yet. There will be an Annual Exhibit some time in April to show the work in the exhibit books. It is from these books and from some special work that the work for the Annual Exhibit, the Bladen Fair and the State Fair is to come. Eckley received $3.00 for their premium at the Bladen Fair and dist No. 40 received $4.00 for their card of water colors.

The parade was very good. The judges were from Lincoln, Hastings and Humboldt. They decided that dist. No. 75 stood first; dist. No. 85 second and Dist. No. 3 third.

The following of the country schools drew prizes:

- Dist. No. 90
- Dist. No. R—Inavale
- Dist. No. 47
- Dist. No. 25
- Dist. No. 49
- Dist. No. 26
- Dist. No. 39
- Dist. No. 75
- Dist. No. 33
- Dist. No. 15
- Dist. No. 58
- Dist. No. 40
- Lyle White

The Red Cloud School also had a good showing. Theirs was made in a hurry so did not represent their best work. We hope they will begin right off to prepare for next year.

We take this method of thanking the many kind friends, neighbors, the Volunteer Firemen, Royal Neighbors and Yeoman Brotherhood for their assistance during the sickness and burial of our beloved wife and daughter, also for the many beautiful floral offerings. May God bless you is our wish.

you "Know-It-All"

ONCE in a while we run across a man who says, "Aw, they don't make cigarettes like they used to—one's as good as another now-a-days."

All right, we'll give that smoker any kind of odds he wants on Spur and win hands down.

Perhaps you are looking for that good old-time tobacco taste. Spurs are chock full of it. Couldn't help but be, with that jim-dandy blend of choice Turkish, fine Burley and other home-grown tobaccos.

Light up a Spur—take a long puff—and quicker than you can say "Jack Robinson" you will jump for a seat on the Spur band wagon.

Spurs have another surprise for you—they're crimped, not pasted. No other cigarette is rolled with the crimped seam, and you benefit by easier drawing, longer burning, better taste.

And here's extra measure—three-fold package of rich brown and silver to keep Spurs fresh and fragrant.

No use dodging—Spurs meet you at every turn.
