COMBINATION SALES

Duroc Jersey breeders held their first combination sale. While they did not receive big prices for their hogs, the buyers got the benefit of the sales.

And next year the farmers of the county will look forward to these

sales as a place to buy their boars.

These sales will be a great thing for

The American people have eagerly responded to the appeals for aid for Belgian babies, French babies and children in other foreign countries. How about the children of our own country? Thousands of them die every year from tuberculosis. The National Tuberculosis Association carries on a continual campaign to save these children with the proceeds derived from the sale of Tuberculosis Christmas Seals. The annual campaign for the sale of these seals starts December 1st.
