(Copy for This Department Supplied by The American Legion News Service.)

PASSES ON LEGAL MATTERS

Robert A. Adams, Judge Advocate, Rose From Rank of Private to That of Major.

Robert A. Adams, recently appointed national judge advocate of the American Legion by the national executive committee, rose from the rank of a private in the Eighty-fourth division at Camp Taylor to that of major during his army career. Mr. Adams went overseas with the Thirty-first heavy artillery brigade and served in the Aisne-Marne, Oise-Aisne and Argonne-Meuse offensives. After the cessation of hostilities he was assigned to duty in the Judge Advocate General's office at G. H. Q. He served fourteen months in the A. E. F.

When Legion officials at National headquarters at Indianapolis decided early in January that it was necessary to enlist the services of a legal adviser to thrash out the knotty problems of eligibility, interpretation of statutes affecting the Legion and other legal matters, Mr. Adams was appointed to fill the position. His appointment to the new position came as a result of efficient service as legal adviser after an amendment was made to the Legion constitution at the Cleveland convention, which authorized the creation of the office of national judge advocate.

Mr. Adams has practiced law since 1916 and is associated with a prominent Indianapolis law firm. He is a graduate of Washington and Jefferson colleges, and also attended Harvard law school. He is twenty-nine years old. The duties of the office consist in the supervision of the legal department of the Legion, the employment of counsel in law suits in which the Legion is involved, interpretation of legal questions, and the adjustment of questions of eligibility.

TO BUILD WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Legion Administrative Machinery to Be Used in Safety Launching the Branch Organization.

Assurance that the administrative machinery of the American Legion will be used without stint in an effort to build up the Women's auxiliary, has been given by National Commander F. W. Galbraith, Jr. It is expected that the auxiliary will take charge of its own destinies next spring, with the holding of the first national convention of the women's units.

"All doubts and misgivings in regard to the future of the Women's auxiliary of the American Legion were removed, and a system of orderly expansion in state departments and a national organization was provided for by the Cleveland convention," announced Mr. Galbraith.

"We propose to offer the aid of our organization in building up the auxiliary, but we are not going to meddle with its policies so long as our recognized ideals and purposes are carried out. The Cleveland convention voted to let the women swim without water wings. It authorized state executive committees of the Legion to call state conventions and to establish department organizations and to establish department organizations of the auxiliary, killing the rule which made necessary the establishment of a total of units equivalent to 50 per cent of the number of posts in the department."

AIDED IN GROWTH OF LEGION

Rev. John W. Inzer, National Chaplain, Long Identified With Activities of Veterans' Organization.

As national chaplain for the ensuing year the American Legion has in Rev. John W. Inzer, pastor of the First Baptist church of Chattanooga, Tenn., a man identified with the activities of the veterans' organization since its inception. Dr. Inzer not only was one of the men who initiated the formation of the Legion, but during the early days of its growth, aided the work by traveling over the country and making addresses as a member of the national executive committee.

Dr. Inzer, who was born in Hamilton county, Texas, January 6, 1890, entered the ministry at the age of nineteen, his first pastorate being in Birmingham, Ala. He volunteered his services as chaplain in the army after the war broke out and served with the Fourth Infantry in the Northwest and at Camp Dodge, Iowa, where he was senior chaplain for three months. After the armistice he moved to Camp Grant, Ill., where he served until March, 1919. He married Miss Marie Smith of Alabama in December, 1918.

Russell G. Creviston, Who Has Seen Much Active Service, Is Appointed to Important Position.

Russell G. Creviston, who has been appointed assistant national adjutant of the American Legion by F. W. Galbraith, Jr., national commander, was director of organization at national headquarters from November, 1919, to October, 1920.

A Hoosier by birth, Mr. Creviston enlisted in May, 1917, in company E of the Fourth Indiana Infantry. He served as a private in this company for three months when he was selected as a candidate for his company to the second officers' training camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana.

After his graduation from the camp he was given complete charge of the administration co-ordination section of the general staff of the eighty-fourth division.

Mr. Creviston assisted in the organization of a vocational training system, and in this connection was transferred to the inspector's division and given charge of the states of Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, where he established various student army training corps.

POST WITH ALTITUDE RECORD

"Top of the World" Organization of Peru at Height of More Than 14,500 Feet.

The "Top of the World" post, claiming to be the highest in The American Legion, and the first and only unit thus far established in Peru, known as the Junin Pampa. By location and transportation facilities, Cerro de Pasco is the logical meeting place for ex-service men in other camps in the central Peru Montana district. It is the largest camp and town in the district including Aroya, Morococha, La Fundacion and Casapala.

"So far as we can determine," writes Clyde A. Warne, the post adjutant, "this is the only post in Peru, and certainly in this district of Peru, known as the Junin Pampa. By location and transportation facilities, Cerro de Pasco is the logical meeting place for ex-service men in other camps in the central Peru Montana district. It is the largest camp and town in the district including Aroya, Morococha, La Fundacion and Casapala."

The name "Top of the World," was unanimously selected as an excellent name for the post, due to the fact that we are at an altitude of a little more than 14,500 feet and we believe we are the highest post in the Legion."

The post is planning to conduct a membership drive in the surrounding territory.

Stand of Colors Presented.

A stand of colors has been presented to Aaron Wittkamp-Cowell post of the American Legion, Tuckahoe, N. J., by the people of the township. Although it has but a membership of 28, the post is full of activity and is about to make a drive for a $2,000 home.

A LETTER FOR WOMEN

From a Woman Whose Serious Illness Was Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Garnett, Kas.—"I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a complete nervous breakdown following the birth of my oldest child. I got up too soon which caused serious female trouble. I was so weak that I was not able to be on my feet but very little and could not do my housework at all. I had a bad pain in my left side and it would pain terribly if I stepped off a curb-stone. One day one of my booklets was thrown in the yard and I read every word in it. There were so many who had been helped by your medicine that I wanted to try it and my husband went to town and got me a bottle. It seemed as though I felt relief after the second dose, so I kept on until I had taken five bottles and by that time I was as well as I could wish. About a year later I gave birth to a ten pound boy, and have had two more children since and my health has been fine. If I ever have trouble of any kind I am going to take your medicine for I give it all the praise for my good health. I always recommend your medicine whenever I can."—Mrs. EVA E. SHAW, Garnett, Kansas.
