GETTING IN TOUCH WITH THE BEST

Edward Everett Hale used to counsel young people to converse every day with some one older, better and wiser than themselves. We cannot all do that, but we can do the next best thing: we can get in touch with them through the printed page and enjoy the fruits of their wisdom and experience. Probably no publication contains so much from the writings of men and women distinguished in many ways as The Youth's Companion. A constant reading of the paper is a liberal education of mind and heart.

The Companion has no age limit.

Professional men, business men and busy women prize it as highly as the young folks.

The 52 issues of 1921 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun.

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1921.
2. All the remaining issues of 1920.
3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1921. All the above for $2.50.
4. McCall's Magazine for 1921. The monthly authority on fashions, $1.50 a year. Both publications, only $3.50.

FARM BUREAU ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting was held Saturday afternoon, December 4. The meeting was well attended, considering the bad roads.

R. E. Holland, County Agent Leader, of Lincoln, talked on "the Relation of the Extension Service and the Farm Bureau." He told of the origin of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., the Agricultural College, and Farm Bureau.

Mr. Davies of Wahoo substituted for Mr. Lute. His subject was, "What the Nebraska and American Farm Bureaus are doing." In Nebraska the organization of counties was started in October in Clay county, where they secured close to 1000 members. They have put on membership campaigns in 10 counties and their average is better than 1000 members in each county. When Nebraska becomes organized, they will then be ready to do big things. He told of the many big things the American Farm Bureau Federation had put across the past year.

The membership campaign will be put on in Webster county in January. The State Federation will send solicitors in from outside the county, and they will make a house to house campaign for members. There will be one solicitor for each township. The following directors were elected for the ensuing year: John Ryan, Red Cloud; Ernest Terrill, Cowles; Alex Buschow, Blue Hill; Fred Householder, Bladen; Clyde Pitney, Inavale; Ralph McCallum, Guide Rock, and John Himmelburg, Lawrence.

John Ryan was elected president and Fred Householder was elected secretary.

HENRY R. FAUSCH,
County Agricultural Agent.

Nebraska Second in Purebred Sires

Nebraska stands second in the number of stock raisers using nothing but purebred sires. More than 300 farmers in this state have enlisted in the campaign to encourage breeding of better stock. Virginia leads all states, with 1,000 farmers using only purebred sires. South Carolina follows close to Nebraska. The campaign is being conducted co-operatively by the United States Department of Agriculture, state colleges of agriculture, and local farm bureaus, in an effort to improve the quality of live stock. When a farmer has replaced all his scrub sires with purebreds he applies to his local farm bureau for official recognition as a breeder of better stock. When his application is accepted he is awarded an emblem to post on his farm, advertising the fact that he is a progressive farmer. It is believed that in five years the campaign will result in a material improvement in the quality of the live stock produced in the United States.

Hell

Sometimes we say—
It's cold'r 'n Hell;
Sometimes we say—
It's hotter 'n Hell,
And when it rains,
'Tis Hell we cry;
It's also Hell
When it's dry.

Married life's Hell—
So they say;
You get home late—
There's Hell to pay;
I suppose it's Hell
If babe cries all night,
And doctor bills—
They'er Hell all right.

But still there's "Hell, yes," "Hell no"
And "Oh, Hell" too;
"The Hell you don't
And "the Hell you do."
Now, how in the Hell
Can anyone tell,
What in the Hell
We mean by Hell?—Lebanon Times.
