About Overdrafts

OVERDRAFTS are not good for you or the bank. There are plenty of reasons why you should not overdraw your account. You have no right to do business that way. It hurts your credit with your banker. An overdraft is in fact a forced loan without security. Your overdraft may sometimes be honored but it gets you in bad all over. Our bank tries to be accommodating but we do not desire overdrafts—unsecured loans that ruin your credit, injure your own standing and endanger the interests of our depositors. Don't overdraw.

WE HAVE AN INTEREST IN YOU.

Farmers Union Members Entertained Tuesday Night

The farmers of this locality and their friends were royally entertained Tuesday evening at the L. O. O. F. hall, when a program and oyster supper was given by the local Farmers Union.

A very pleasing program was rendered, consisting of speaking, readings, and music, both instrumental and vocal.

H. G. Keeney, of Cowles and I. B. Wagone were the speakers, the former discussing the present condition of things in general and the latter selecting for his subject "Marketing of Products". It is needless to say that the audience received much valuable information and both these gentlemen are possessed of a fine degree of intelligence and are good speakers.

Mrs. George Kailey's readings commanded the usual attention and praise of all those present.

A total of twelve voices were included in the vocal selections, duets, trios, quartets and chorus.

Detta Corners' recitation—the description of a Ford car was so unusual and so well rendered that the audience could not conceal their delight.

The prize number on the program was the solo "Lost on the Lady Elgin", by A. B. Pierce.

The program which began at 8 p. m., was followed by the supper, at which two hundred and seventy were served.

State Commercial Club Men Visited Local Club

On Wednesday evening the Commercial Club held a special meeting at their rooms at which time the State President R. D. Gaston, of Hastings, was present and made a few remarks on what the club of that city was doing and also the state organization.

The principal address of the evening was given by State Secretary Harry Moss, of Omaha, who gave a very splendid talk on the present conditions of this country and illustrated the same with a chart. He proved to be a very forcible speaker and his talk gave those present much food for thought, and he should have been heard by everyone in this community, as his talk was one of the best that we have heard for a long time.

At the close of the meeting the members partook of sandwiches and coffee served cafeteria style.

The out of town guests were Messrs. Bruckman, Cressman and Brandeis of Hastings.

When Coal Was Not Burned, Queen Elizabeth, broad-minded in many things, believed coal burning was bad for health, and whenever the country gentlemen came to London to parliament, no one in the city was permitted to light a coal fire.

Henry Fausch Honored

New Comedian Comes to the Auditorium

The latest acquisition to the comedy field is Mr. Clyde Cook, the celebrated New York Hippodrome clown. He will amuse Auditorium patrons here Friday and Saturday night.

New Officers Sworn in Today

Today the county officers, chosen by the people at the November election assumed the duties of their respective offices. Carl Kaid will succeed C. A. Herfick as county assessor. Miss Clara McMillan took up her duties as clerk of the District Court, succeeding Miss Edith McKelighan who faithfully served the people for two terms as clerk. Messrs. H. H. Crowell, Henry Stumpfenhorst and T. J. Chaplin will succeed Commissioners Hubatka, Thomas and Knigge. Regardless of political affiliations we extend greetings to our new county officials, as do all the people.

This date also marks an important epoch in the history of the county, as it will see one of our highly respected citizens and fellow townsmen take his place as District Judge, succeeding H. S. Dungan of Hastings. It is a just cause for rejoicing in this vicinity, as Hon. Blackledge is the first resident of this county to be elected to this place of honor. It is needless to say that the people will be efficiently and faithfully served as Judge Blackledge's record shows him to be competent to attend to the duties of the office.

Hazlett's Conversation. Some admirer of his was astonished to find that his conversation was so ordinary. Could this be the author of "Table Talk"? It was a gentleman who evidently expected Hazlett to speak essays. Enough for him to have to write them! He considered himself off duty when he was not at work on something he had thought of.—Stoddard.
