ANTI-CLAIM CRUSADE ON THE BURLINGTON

The Loss and Damage Committee of the C. B. & Q. R. R. is after claims with an axe. Officers and employees have pledged themselves to reduce claims to a new minimum or know the reason why. They just don't want to associate with claims a-tall.

Freight Claim Agent J. D. Shields, says: "A claim represents a defect in service. It means that somebody fell down. No one wants to fall down on his job. We all want 100 per cent service, both in what we give and what we receive.

"A claim represents an economic waste of the country's products, a loss to society, a loss that increases the cost of living, a loss which all of us consumers help to pay. Losing one dollar's worth of grain results in depriving somebody of four dollars worth of bread.

"A claim represents additional work, unnecessary and unpleasant work. It is always easier to prevent a claim than to explain one.

"A claim represents a dead loss to the railroad—an additional expenditure that buys criticism, complaints and extra work.

"Everybody can help! The receiving clerk who refuses to accept an improperly marked package prevents a claim. The O. S. & D. clerk who takes up with the agent of the other road and finds "over" the package he is short a "money maker" and a claim saver. There are thousands of ways to prevent claims. We shall put every one of them into use during 1921 and are confident of establishing a record that will go down in history."

Mrs. Grice has been very sick the past few days.

The Farmers Union Association of Inavale will conduct an 8 day Cash Sale commencing Saturday and ending Feb. 18th. You can save money by buying of them during the sale. adv

Wednesday morning, Ed McAllister sold his interest in the McAllister & Clauson pool hall to Allan Van Dyke and immediate possession was given him. The new managers have removed the bowling alley and are busy cleaning up this amusement parlor.
