Before the Speech.
Some orators start with a rush, others begin quite slowly. A speaker we know has the habit of striding meditatively across the stage once or twice before he begins his address. On one occasion we heard a lively young fellow in front of us whisper to his girl with reference to the peripatetic gentleman on the platform: "That, I suppose," his preamble."—Boston Traveller

Variety in Bibles.
A collection of 114 Bibles published between 1537 and 1666 was recently sold at Sotheby's in London. It included samples of the Great Bible, 1540, the "Bug," 1540; the Geneva, or "Breeches," 1560, and a "Pear" Bible, 1633.

The Work Way.
How you goin' to git to Glory when you've had your day? If this life don't tell your story in the story-way? How you goin' to glimpse surprisin', everlastin' things? If you'd match the sun a-risin', you must work for wings! —Atlanta Constitution.

Saving That Stamp.
To remove a stamp from an envelope, cut a blotter to the size of the stamp, soak it in cold water and lay it over the stamp. Remove blotter in a few minutes and the stamp will come off.
