GET THE BIG NEWSPAPER THAT IS FIGHTING YOUR FIGHT

This year promises to be notable for big problems.

What can be done to restore prosperity to the country?

How can we reduce taxes?

How can stable good prices for farm products be brought back?

How can freight rates be reduced and railroad business restored?

How can we pay our debts, public and private?

How can the millions of idle men be put to work?

How can we get back to a profitable relationship with Europe, the great customer for our surplus cotton, corn, copper, wheat cattle and hogs?

How can we get rid of the burdens of war and make the blessings of peace permanent?

We have opened a new chapter in the world's history.

To study it and to understand it all should read a daily newspaper, and Senator Hitchcock's newspaper, the Omaha World-Herald, is beyond doubt the largest and the best in Nebraska.

Senator Hitchcock established this paper in 1885, nearly thirty-seven years ago.

For more than a third of a century, therefore, this newspaper has been under his control and management.

During many of these years he acted as editor. In 1894, on his invitation, Mr. William J. Bryan became editor for two years, only resigning to run for president. Mr. Bryan was succeeded as editor by Mr. R. L. Metcalf, and on the latter's resignation Mr. Hitchcock again took over the editorship. At that time he associated with himself Mr. H. E. Newbranch. About that time Mr. Hitchcock entered the lower house of congress where he served three terms. When elected to the United States senate eleven years ago he turned over full editorial responsibility to Mr. Newbranch, who has been a member of the World-Herald staff for twenty-three years.

For thirty-seven years Senator Hitchcock has been president of the company which owns and publishes the World-Herald. With steady and unswerving purpose over that long period the newspaper has fought the battle of the people. During about half that time Mr. Hitchcock has been in public life in Washington and what he has stood for there, his newspaper has led the fight for in the west.

The policy of the World-Herald has been permanent and it has been popular.

Another element in the success of the World-Herald has been its independence. Behind its ownership there are no public utility securities, no railroad interests, no entangling alliances either corporate or individual. The result is a free and untrammelled newspaper which under unchanged ownership and control has stood uniformly for public interest and popular rights for all these years. Among the causes which it championed in the past are the maximum freight law, the anti-pass law, the two-cent fare law, and the law for taxation of railway terminals. The World-Herald is a pioneer in the fight for direct primaries for the popular election of United States senators, for the graduated income tax, for the initiative and referendum, for the guarantee of bank deposits, for postal savings of banks, for the farm loan banking system and for the municipal ownership of water works in Omaha.

As the leading exponent of progressive democracy the World-Herald fought the battles for William J. Bryan in three presidential campaigns and did its share to carry Nebraska for Woodrow Wilson in two great campaigns.

Its leadership in fusion movements in the early 90's helped to rescue the state from the railroads and other corporate interests and to market Nebraska one of the progressive states of the union.

In all the great constructive acts of Woodrow Wilson's administration the World-Herald as a newspaper, and Senator Hitchcock as its chief owner, took an active part.

A sincere believer in fundamental democratic doctrine, Mr. Hitchcock has not hesitated to differ with his party and its leadership when his convictions impelled him to that course.

The World-Herald today stands for the same general policies in the interest of the people that it has championed for thirty-seven years. It stands with Senator Hitchcock in the fight he has made to promote the interests of agriculture and reduce the general burdens of taxation, to maintain the graduated income tax on large incomes and the excess profits taxes on highly profitable business. It stands with him in his effort to secure broader and more profitable markets for the products of western farms and for the surplus products of America, including the cotton of the south and the grain and live stock of the west. It stands, as he stands, for disarmament, for cutting governmental expenses, state and national, for simplifying government and for getting back to Jeffersonian simplicity in public affairs.

It stands for Senator Hitchcock's bill providing for the establishment of a Bank of Nations in order that it may be made possible to establish a system of credit to stimulate the sales of our products to European countries and revive our export trade so that the farmers and stock-raisers may get living prices for their corn, their wheat, their cattle and their hogs. Anyone desiring a copy of this bill together with an explanation of it will receive it by dropping a postal card to the World-Herald, whether he is a subscriber or not.

If you are not a subscriber, the World-Herald would like to have you for a subscriber. The price is $6.00 a year, or we will be glad to send it to you for six months for $3.00. This includes the Sunday World-Herald.

We can honestly say that the World-Herald is the largest and best daily and Sunday newspaper in the state and one of the largest and best in the whole west. Its news service is superior to that of any other Nebraska newspaper. It publishes more and better market reports than any Nebraska newspaper. It has the full Associated Press service. It has many special correspondents. It has many literary features including stories. Its Sunday issue is almost equal to a magazine. It carries almost twice as much advertising as any newspaper in Nebraska. It has a circulation of over 81,000 copies a day. It has a fine special cable service of the news of the world. It has features for women and features for children, and for six months it costs only $3.00 for daily with Sunday.

ESTELLE E. DUCKER.

Flowers For The Living

Bert Ducker has filed as a candidate on the Democratic ticket for the nomination for county treasurer. He has been a resident of this community for many years and during the past six years has been deputy county clerk in which capacity he has given universal satisfaction and is in every way capable of handling the office to which he aspires. The Chief believes that the Democratic voters will make no mistake in nominating him for county treasurer.

Lawrence Doyle, our present city marshal, filed recently as a candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket and his announcement appears in this paper this week. Mr. Doyle has spent his entire life in this community and his sterling reputation cannot be questioned. He is a capable candidate for sheriff and is entitled to the support of the voters of his party.

Miss Estelle Ducker, county superintendent of schools, has filed for the nomination asking for a second term on the non-political ticket. She has spent the greater part of her life in educational work and during her administration as superintendent she has conducted school matters in a highly capable manner.

Occasional Reflections

A strong effort is being made to relegate the "bonus bill" to the Republican bone yard.

It is an awful slam on a decent animal to call these tea sissies "lounge lazards." Lounge lice would be more appropriate.

Jim Jefferies, ex pugilist, has gotten the saw dust trail made famous by Billie Sunday mixed up with the old fashioned sawdust on the bar room floor.

"What has been accomplished by the Republican party in 1921?" asks Senator Lodge. All right Senator we'll bite, what's the joke?

The fellow who wanders through life with his mouth open eventually gets his foot into it.

It would be a fine thing if the millions used to elect such men as Newberry could be diverted to honest channels, or used to relieve distress among the ex-service men who returned to find their places filled with conscientious objectors by conscienceless employers.

Always Obliging.

Jud Tunkins says he's perfectly willing to be wrong sometimes, for the sake of not spoiling an interesting argument.

Farm Bureau Notes

Live Stock Sales

Len Wilmot & Sons had a good Spotted Poland China Sale. Breeders from adjoining counties and Kansas competed for some of the offering. The results were a $37.00 average.

Hamilton and Fausch had a good Poland China Sale on the Hamilton farm. The entire offering except 4 head stayed in the immediate community. Sale average $43.00, top was $60.00.

Webster County Duroc Consignment sale was the best sale of the season. $49.00 average with a $71.00 top. A large crowd attended the same and some of the hogs left the county.

Promotion Work

We often hear that "difference of opinion makes a horse race" and we can just as truly say that it is difference of opinion which makes it possible for us to have several breeds of hogs instead of only one. But fortunately we do not all think alike. A person's thoughts are often the results of impressions and the greater the impression the greater the thought along that line.

As a believer in your breed with both a selfish and unselfish motive you should put your best effort in selling your animals and your breed to the public through the show and sale ring with a view of educating that same public to the use of better breeding hogs and better pork production.

McNeny Buys Durocs

Bernard McNeny buys five bred sows in Bridenthal's Duroc Sale at Wymore. These are of the popular sensation blood lines and Mr. McNeny is putting them on his farm east of Amboy.

Mattock Elected President

Webster county again honored when Earl J. Mattock of Bladen was elected president of the Nebraska Polled Hereford Breeders' Association at Omaha last week.

Poultry Specialist

C. T. Cornman, Poultry Specialist from Lincoln visits Mrs. A. Arnold of Inavale. Mrs. Arnold is in the process of having her flock accredited and Mr. Cornman spoke very highly of her fine flock of S. C. Rhode Island Reds. Mrs. Arnold keeps accurate account of all feed fed and of all eggs and poultry sold, last year her poultry netted her $4.00 per hen. Mrs. Arnold also had the honor of having the highest laying hen in the National egg laying contest. This hen laid 272 eggs during the year.

County Agricultural Agent.

County School Notes

(By County Superintendent)

Some few years back, Red Cloud girls won great honors over the country in their cooking and sewing. This was largely due to the wonderful help of Mrs. W. H. Thomas.

Good fortune has again made her accessible. She with the very capable aid of Mrs. Max Mizer, will meet any girls that would like to do some sewing to be entered at the State Fair, on Saturday next—March 11 in the Teacher's examination room in the Court house at 2 p. m.

Any teachers who have not reported their 7 and 8th grade students that are intending to take the examinations should do so at once so that their paper supply and questions will be on hand. It is important for this reason to know where they are intending to take.

Two dollars will make the teacher a member of the Nebraska State Teacher's Association and also a member of their District Association. The association should be helpful to the teacher in bringing about the things she is working for and hoping for. Other branches of labor find profit in organization, why shouldn't the teacher. Organize for the common good of all. All money should be sent to Mr. Morton of Fairbury Nebraska. He is the president of the association.

There is going to be plenty of good Webster county teachers for next year. If outside teachers are hired in any case it should be because they are known to be something very superior.

March 11, 1922, there will be a very special Educational meeting at Kearney in the court room. A splendid program has been prepared. Webster county teachers are invited. It begins at 10.30 a. m.

A Letter To Make Good

Must impress the person who receives it with its importance, whether the correspondence be of a business or personal nature. The mails are flooded with cheap circular letters and the average busy man of to-day gives his mail the "once over" and passes most of it to the waste basket. A letter to demand attention in these busy times must be distinctive.

Hammermill Ripple Bond

Printed correctly makes the nicest letter head you can possibly obtain. The hard smooth surface of this paper renders it particularly adaptable to high class artistic printing and the ripple finish places it in a class by itself for attractive appearance. The "crisp cackle" you notice in opening a letter written on Hammermill Ripple immediately suggests taste and progressiveness on the part of the sender.
