A Leak on Shipboard.
When one contemplates that so much energy is exerted to the end of keeping the water out of a ship, it seems as an astonishing fact that there is of necessity a great deal of water within the hull of the vessel. A modern liner has enough water in her hull to make a good-sized lake. About 1,400 tons of water is carried by a big passenger vessel. The drinking water for the use of passengers amounts to 250, and there are about 800 tons of sea water being used for ballast. The six boilers contain 300 tons. The tanks are situated between the double hulls of the vessel.

A Howler From India.
A glimmer of light is shown on the mystery of the simultaneous use of the bathroom for local and hydropathic exercises by the following, written by a student in India: "Climate has a great difference on character. We always observe that if a person enters a hot bathroom he is always compelled to sing and chant. The reason is that heat causes the expansion of the human soul as well as other bodies."—Boston Transcript.

New Equipment For The Burlington

The Pullman Company is delivering to the Burlington at Chicago, 42 new all-steel coaches which represent the last word of the car builders' art. These new coaches are extra long—70 feet—seat 84 passengers, embody all approved, easy-riding features, are especially well insulated against both cold and noise, equipped with brass window sash (this arrangement materially increasing the vision of passengers), and have separate wash rooms and toilets.

A Splendid Chautauqua Program For Red Cloud

The Chautauqua closed their engagement here with a pageant given by the children of Red Cloud, followed by the Southern Minstrels Tuesday night. The pageant was given under the direction of Mrs. Don C. Rogers, and both she and the children, deserve much credit for its rendition. The Southern Minstrels gave an hours' entertainment that was highly appreciated as well as the drawings by the "Chalk-Talk" artist. A fairly good attendance was out, but not as large as hoped for. Although the attendance during the seven days was not as large as they anticipated, the company seemed to be satisfied and pleased with the co-operation and boosting spirit shown by the good people of Red Cloud and vicinity. The Ernest Troy Artist Trio gave a very pleasing entertainment on Thursday afternoon and a prelude in the evening, followed by Mr. and Mrs. C. Rucker Adams on "Advanced Ideals" Health Demonstrations. Their work was fascinating and easily understood and proved very beneficial to those who followed their demonstrations. Friday was one of the big days of the Chautauqua, having with the Misner Players in a miscellaneous program, or sketch. In the afternoon, and in the evening presenting "Peg of My Heart" which contained many situations of mirth provoking interest and pathos. This indeed was a very pleasing number. The John Ross Reed Co., gave a very pleasing entertainment Saturday, afternoon and evening, consisting of both vocal and instrumental selections. They are indeed artists in their profession and each selection was greatly enjoyed by all. Sunday the Harris Orchestra gave a concert prelude in the afternoon, followed in the evening with an entire musical program suitable for the day, that was a real treat and much enjoyed by a goodly number. At Monday's session the Copely Operatic Co., opened the afternoon program with a very pleasing musical prelude—and in the evening gave an excellent rendition of "Chimes of Normanda." This company is second to none, and showed marked ability in each of their song numbers. Although it rained, and the tent leaked, those present were so grossly interested in the play—they did not mind the drop of rain. Red Cloud is assured of a five day Chautauqua for next year as the business men and citizens of our town and community have already signed as guarantors. Every town should be proud that they have a Chautauqua each year, thus giving its citizens good, clean and wholesome entertainment which otherwise they would be deprived of.

THRIFT

"Save young man and become respectable and respected. It's the surest way."—BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

THIS MAXIM from the mind of one of America's greatest thinkers should strike home with the young men of Red Cloud and vicinity. Our most successful business men have heeded it in their youth and are happy for having done so. They practiced thrift without personal inconvenience and the dollars they thus saved proved the foundation for their success.
