Murvel Fentress Escapes Again

Murvel Fentress, who stole a car at Lebanon several months ago, and had been a boarder at the county jail at Smith Center while awaiting trial at district court, escaped Saturday afternoon. It seems as though Sheriff Agnew had some business down town and let his daughter feed the prisoners, and while doing this Fentress stuck his hand through the door, secured the key, unlocked it and escaped.

Mrs. Barkley Dies Suddenly

Mrs. John Barkley passed away suddenly Wednesday evening at her home in the First ward. While eating supper she was taken suddenly ill and got up from the table and expired before medical assistance arrived.
Matilda M. Hatfield was born Nov. 1, 1868, at Omaha, Nebraska, and came with her parents to Red Cloud in 1879 and has resided here ever since. She was united in marriage to John Barkley July 4, 1885, and to this union were born three children, who passed away several years ago. The deceased was a faithful member of the Christian church, also belonged to the W. C. T. U., Degree of Honor and the Yeoman lodges.
Besides her husband and aged mother, two brothers—Bert Hatfield, of this city, Curt Hatfield, of Concordia, Kansas, two sisters, Mrs. Ressie Coin, of this city, Mrs. Ethel Pyle, of White Cloud, Kas., and a niece, Gleva Coin, are left to mourn her demise.
The funeral services will be held Sunday morning.

GRANDMA FOX WAS LAID AT REST SUNDAY

Funeral services, in charge of Rev. Samuel Hardman, for Grandma Fox were conducted from the J. E. Fox home, in the Second Ward, on Sunday morning, after which interment was made in the Garfield cemetery.
Laura Della Randall was born in Genesee county, New York state, August 10, 1835 and passed away at the home of her son in this city on Friday, September 1st at the age of 87 years and 21 days.
Her girlhood was spent in Ohio and on October 8, 1855 she was united in marriage to John Fox. Their early married life was spent in Michigan where their children were born and grew up. A number of years ago the family moved to Nebraska and settled in Garfield Township.
Four children blessed their marriage, John and Sanford of this city, Cora Beauchamp of Ada, Oklahoma, and Katie, who passed into the fuller life in 1890. John Fox, the husband of the deceased passed away February 17, 1904, since which time she has made her home in Red Cloud.
Early in life she united with the Methodist Episcopal church and for over fifty five years proved herself to be a faithful christian, devoted mother and grandmother.
Besides her two sons and one daughter she also leaves to mourn their loss twelve grandchildren and five great grandchildren.
