Need Groceries To-Day?

"ALWAYS prepared and waiting to fill any grocery order" is the motto under which our store is run. It means that no matter how small your order may be or what particular items you may want, we are ready to supply them.

We never allow any of our lines of package, bottled or canned goods to decrease to a "sold out" level. Neither do we offer anything in the Vegetable or Fruit line, unless it is strictly fresh. And what's more, we are sure our prices will please you.

Her Come Back.

Mary Garden, the great singer, was the guest of honor at a chorus girl's tea in Chicago.

"You girls are all beautiful," Miss Garden said, "and I know you must all be a good deal bothered in the streets by men. Always turn these men down—politely but firmly, you know."

"That's easier said than done," a blonde chorus girl demurred.

"Not at all," said the diva. "Well, now," said the blonde chorus girl thoughtfully, "suppose a handsome young man should stop his racing car, jump out, and offer you his hand and say, 'your face is familiar.' what would you do then?"

"I'd answer," said Miss Garden, "so are your manners."

More Profiteering.

"A superb view from your veranda," remarked the guest.

"We call attention to it in our advertisements," said the proprietor of a summer hotel.

"And I'm glad to know this is one attraction you don't charge for."

"Well, that's true, but you can get a much better view of the scenery through a pair of our field glasses. We rent 'em for $1 a day."

"Your President" and Wall Street has vetted the adjusted compensation bill. He would rather pass laws for the benefit of the corporations than give those who wore the O. D. uniform—drawing $7.50 per month, sacrificing their life, health—and many who are jobless walking the streets of the cities any compensation for what they gave their country in time of peril.

A republican farmer said the other day:

"The mightiest political machine ever assembled in this state was managed by Sam McKelvie, our present governor, and the attractive thing about it from Sam's standpoint was that the people footed the bill, both of assembling it and of operating it. Down with the code government."

Taxes have not been lifted by the republican congress. They have been shifted. The multi-millionaires were relieved of paying $450,000,000 in taxes by the repeal of the excess profits tax. And then, the same class was relieved of paying $61,500,000 by a reduction in the sur-tax. The original republican attempt was to take off another $300,000,000 from the rich people's taxes, but Senator Hitchcock's amendment to the revenue bill raising the tax from 32 per cent to 60 per cent resulted in placing it at 50 per cent finally, and thus saved the common people over $300,000,000.

Proof of Ability To Pay the Bonus (Chicago Tribune.)

The total cost of the recent coal strike to this country, including loss of wages to miners, overhead expense in idle mines, additional freight rates for long hauls from union fields, etc., has been estimated at $1,100,000,000. The public will pay that loss at least once and probably three or four times if the coal operators can keep sufficient pressure upon us to allow of such extortion. Say it costs us altogether $2,000,000,000.

That is approximately one half of the estimated cost of the proposed soldiers' bonus. We will protest the bill. To many it will be a hardship. But we can and shall pay it and survive. The $2,000,000,000 will come out of the public's pocket within seven months. And our resources are sufficient to stand it and prosper, however much we may dislike it, and however unjust it may be.

Payment of the soldiers' bonus, on the other hand, is to be spread over a period of twenty years. In the one case we have an extortion of $2,000,000,000 to be met in one year and in the other a just debt of $4,000,000,000 to be met over twenty years. And each is to be paid by the public out of the business resources of this country. And yet opponents of the bonus bill tell us that the country cannot expect to pay that debt and retain its prosperity.

Could anything be more absurd? There can remain no doubt that a country which can submit to an extortion of $2,000,000,000 at the hands of coal men in one year can afford to pay a just obligation of $4,000,000,000 to its soldiers over a period of twenty years.

Garfield Community Church

Services at the Garfield Community Church Sunday will be:

Sunday School—10:00 A. M. Laban Wagoner, Superintendent.

Sermon—11:00 A. M. Theme: "The Requirements and Rewards of Grace." Evening Sermon—7:30 o'clock. Theme: "Conflicting Forces in Life."

At the Sunday morning service the first steps in grading the school and introducing the Graded Lessons will be taken. This will affect all children between the ages of four and fifteen years. We should like to see an especially large number present so that the enrollment may be taken in preparation for the first Sunday of the new Quarter.

The time from 7:30 to 8:00 in the evening service will be given to music and Outline Bible Studies. This will be of real interest and profit.

LOCAL ITEMS OF THIRTY YEARS AGO.

(Friday, Sept. 23, 1892)

Eddie Platt gave his little friends a party one day last week.

The B. & M. railway are painting the eating house inside and out.

Miss Rhoda Waddell of Aurora, has been engaged to teach the Kindergarten school.

Mark Parkes of McCook, formerly an employ of this office, is visiting with his parents this week. Mark has a good job in the round-house at the above named place.

Red Cloud is getting to be quite a summer resort. On Thursday our sporting editor accompanied by some of our noted sportsmen saw a very fine specimen of quail on Webster street.

Wright Thornburg will open a buggy establishment in the Moon block.

Oscar Teel has accepted a position with the Bladen bank. He will move his family there in a few weeks.

W. Harris and C. Gust have formed a co-partnership and have embarked in the butcher business. The new firm have our best wishes.

(Items of Twenty Years Ago.)

Charley D. Robinson ex-county treasurer of this county, has purchased the interest of Wm. Koon, in the firm of Rife and Koon and in the future will be one of Red Cloud's pushing business men. We are very glad to see that Charley has decided to remain with us and wish him the largest measure of success. The firm will in the future, as in the past, continue to dispense groceries and meats. We did not learn as to Mr. Koon's plans for the future.

Darrel Burden is the new devil at the CHIEF.

Everton Foe returned, Sunday, from a pleasure trip to Denver and the mountains.

Lafe Herburger returned, the first of the week, from Hastings where he was during the reunion.

Henry Kesler returned, Sunday morning, from McCook where he has had charge of the Hadel Mercantile Co's store, for the past month.

James Mitchell was down from McCook the first of the week to visit with his brother Robert who was injured last week by being thrown from a horse.

Ralph Pope is expected home in a short time. Ralph's visit will probably be much curtailed as owing to the lack of officers in the navy, all ensigns it is expected will be ordered to sea again, at once.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

(E. County Agent, Henry R. Fausch) DEMONSTRATION TEAM AT OMAHA

The Webster County Calf Demonstration team at the invitation of the Directors of the Ak-Sar-Ben gave their demonstration on selecting, fitting and showing a calf to a large and appreciative audience. This year is the first year that the Ak-Sar-Ben has injected some agriculture into their race meet. The Extension Service and Bureau of Animal Industry had some good booths.

The Bureau of Animal Industry on T. B. Eradication Herds under supervision 103,046, number of cattle tested 1,546,814 and number of herds accredited 9,963 cattle 230,704.

Last year's figures condemned 37,492 cattle carcasses and 54,670 parts of carcasses. 15,609 hogs carcasses condemned and 335,631 parts of carcasses.

Meats condemned for tuberculosis would feed 160,000 people a meat ration of one meal a day for a year.

Animal Live Stock losses from tuberculosis equal 70 train loads of 40 cars each, representing 3,000,000 bushels of corn fed and wasted.

Pride and Vanity.
I would much rather fight pride than vanity, because pride has a stand-up way of fighting. You know where it is. It throws its black shadow on you, and you are not at a loss where to strike. But vanity is that delusive, that insectivorous, that multiplied feeling; and men that fight vanity are like men that fight widges and butterflies. It is easier to chase them than to hit them.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Can Be No Compromise.

Casserole, the PYREX way

Easiest because it is transparent. Avoid the guesswork and uncertainty. Look through your PYREX and see the food baking.

PYREX—the original transparent oven-ware—is sanitary and practical for everyday use and is guaranteed not to break in the oven.

Durable and economical—saves time, fuel and dishes—you bake in and serve from the same dish.

Food actually tastes better when PYREXED—the full flavor is retained because the baking is quick and thorough.
