Vote For the "Amendment."

The "Proposed Amendment to the Constitution relating to Judicial Powers" should receive the vote of every voter at the coming primaries, without regard to party. The amendment was submitted by the last Legislature by the votes of members of all political parties—men who have investigated the question and know the necessity for its adoption. The proposed amendment was endorsed by the Republican and Peoples Independent parties in their state conventions last spring and has just been endorsed by the executive committee of the Democratic State Committee, after a careful consideration and full discussion of the question with many influential men in that party.

That the measure is non-partisan and should receive the support of every voter in the state is further established by the following statement signed by the chairmen of the State Committees of the three great political parties of the state, viz:

"In our judgment the proposed constitutional amendment increasing in number the judges of the Supreme Court, which is to be voted on at the coming primaries, is a step in the right direction. This amendment, if adopted, will enable the Court to hear and decide all cases without the assistance of Commissioners. The substitution of four judges for six commissioners will not only give the state a better working court, but will be a great saving of expense to litigants in that court, and hence, a great benefit to the people of the state. We hope that every voter of our respective parties will vote for it at the coming primaries.

Wm. Hayward
Chairman Republican State Com.
T. S. Allen
Chairman Democratic State Com.
C. B. Manuel
Chairman Peoples Ind'pt State Com.

The adoption of the amendment referred to is of vital importance to the people of Nebraska without regard to party, and we hope that it may be unanimously endorsed at the primaries.

REALLY WAS A SIMPLE MATTER.

Prisoner's Acquittal Not Astonishing Under the Circumstances.

"The' Allen," said a New York politician, "took a cynical view of mankind. For one thing, he did not believe in trial by jury. Humanity, he would say, was too corrupt to admit of your getting 12 good men and true in a jury box together. Then he would tell his ham story.

"A chap, the story ran, was indicted for stealing a multitude of hams—some 600 or 700.

"The trial came. The evidence against the chap was overwhelming. His lawyer leaned to him and whispered:

"You are a gone goose. There is nothing for me to do."

"But the prisoner smiled and replied:

"Just you get up there, please, and make a speech abusing all the witnesses. Considering the size of your fee, you lose heart pretty quickly."

"So the lawyer made a most abusive speech. But the judge summed up powerfully against the ham stealer. After an absence of five minutes, however, the jury brought in a verdict of 'not guilty.'

"Well, I can't understand it," said the prisoner's lawyer, as he left the court arm in arm with his client.

"I can," said the other, with his calm smile. "Every man on the jury had one of the hams."

SOME OF EACH.

"Somebody told him that he mustn't drink ice water during hot weather and somebody else told him he must let alcoholic beverages alone. You know how very obstinate he is."

"Yes."

"Well, he mixes the two."

Figures and Numbers.

"Figures don't lie," remarked the man who utters aphorisms. "That's true so far as mathematics is concerned," answered the campaigner. "But in politics a back number is liable to prevaricate some."

TO BRING ORANGE TREE NORTH.

Botanists at Work on Development of Hardy Specimen.

Botanists in the employ of the United States department of agriculture hope to bring into being an orange tree which will be as sturdy as the apple tree; an orange tree that will not perish in the chill of northern winter, which in December will bear its wreaths of snow and in May its garlands of bloom, and when summer comes will yield fruit as good as that sweetened in the south sun.

This may seem to be an unnatural proposition, but it only seems so. No violence upon the laws of Nature has been or will be attempted. It is simply an effort to make the citrus tree which bears the sweet table orange as hardy and insensitive to cold as the citrus tree which bears the bitter, unedible orange. By crossing a citrus tree which grows in the north and which bears the unedible fruit with the citrus tree of the south it is sought to beget a plant in which will be combined the good traits of each.

Government botanists are confident that the results of this citrus marriage will be a scion that will grow and fruit at a latitude midway between the northern limits of the sweet and bitter orange. If this should be there might be groves in central Virginia, middle Kentucky, southern Indiana, southern Illinois, central Missouri and central Kansas. Think of orange groves around the homes in Richmond, Louisville, Cincinnati and Kansas City!—Technical World.

NEW DIET HAS MANY FRIENDS.

Converts to "Sanitarianism" Being Made Every Day.

Sanitarianism, or half vegetarianism, has gained many converts since Minister Wu coined the new word. The theory of the stomach's being the seat of all disease is banishing meat from the bill of fare of many homes.

Cereals and fruits, vegetables, curried rice prepared with meat extracts and gravies, the various pastes from Italy deftly cooked in the Tuscan manner with tomato essence and cheese, all these foods are gaining in popularity as the steak and chop furore diminishes.

The sanitarian does not banish meat from his menu, but neither does he make much of it, and the red meats and pork are rarely used. Chicken and fish appear to be the least harmful of dietetic solids, in his opinion.

The person who resolves to cut down the meat diet with a view to improving his general condition will be amazed, the sanitarian declares, to find that after a few days he will feel lighter, better in mind and capable of more effort. And hot water taken internally in quantity each morning upon rising produces such effects in conjunction with a restricted diet that one who persists in the treatment for a few weeks will never go back to the old program.

Horses Made Deaf by Lightning.

An unusual incident occurred at Clark's Corners, two miles north of Conesus Lake, when an electrical storm passed over the place. The barn on the Bartlett farm was struck by lightning during the night, and when Stephen Bartlett went to the barn in the morning he found that the post between two of the horses stalled in the barn was smashed to kindling.

Although the horses must have been rendered senseless by the shock, they did not show any injury until after being hitched up. When Bartlett began to gee, haw and cluck to the horses they paid no attention whatever to him, but as soon as he touched his whip to them they responded. An examination showed the animals had had their eardrums broken by the crash. Both horses are now stone deaf.—Geneseo correspondence Rochester Herald.

New Work for Women.

The auto inn is the latest outlet for the energies of women, suggested as a means of income. One near Philadelphia is called the Tulip inn and everything about it is in Dutch style, as might be supposed. Parties going out from the city telephone for lunches and dinners if desired, and when they arrive they find the tables awaiting their pleasure. There are hundreds of people who motor now who are not members of Country clubs and such wayside farmhouses would, no doubt, attract many.

Why Journalism is Popular.

Journalism is very popular with Smith college girls, as two years ago two graduates of the college applied for positions on a Boston newspaper and were immediately accepted. This year there are two vacancies, the young ladies having married members of the newspaper staff. The editor now has made application for two of this year's graduates and will have no trouble in getting them.
