Elias Day and Oranne Truitt Day.
The Vassar Girls.
Fisher-Shipp Concert Company
Brush.

Though many have already subscribed for season tickets, many more have not yet been canvassed, and within a week or ten days a committee from the High school will call on you and we hope that the people of Red Cloud will give their hearty support to the High school students in making this course a success.

Enjoy an Excellent Meeting.

The joint meeting of the Mary Bryan and Bryan clubs at the court house last Monday evening was largely attended and much enjoyed by all present. Judge Edson delivered an able address in presenting the flag to the Mary Bryan club, which was gracefully responded to by Mrs. Dickson. L. H. Blackledge, democratic candidate for county attorney, delivered a rousing and instructive address on the guarantee of bank deposits. Dr. Danerell spoke on the advancement and financing of the campaign, and many learned more about how this part of the work is carried on than they had ever known before. T. J. Ward gave a detail of the arrangements for Bryan day at the county fair. One of the pleasing features of the meeting was the music furnished by the Mary Bryan club.

Conventions for Washington.

During the last week of September, and the first week in October four conventions of national and international importance will be held in Washington.

As an important convention here is the occasion for not only convention work but for much sight seeing and extensive entertaining it will be realized what a busy fortnight the Capital will have. Already and for many weeks past preparation have been in progress for the International Congress on Tuberculosis whose sessions begin September 28th, and last until October 5.

Distinguished physicians from many parts of Europe will attend as well as prominent men of science from every section of this country. The Congress will be opened by Secretary Courtney who will address the delegates on behalf of the President. The meetings are to be held in the National Museum and a large reception for the delegates will be given by the President who hastened his return to the city on account of the meeting of this convention. If the weather permits the entertainment will be in the form of a garden party and the delegates and invited guests will be received on the extensive lawns back of the White House, where the Marine band in scarlet uniforms and the ladies in afternoon gowns will make a gorgeous contrast to the velvety well kept lawns and the fine old trees. There will be many luncheons, receptions and dinners, semi-public, and much private entertaining.

The International Fisheries Congress which will convene September 22nd is another important convention that will be attended by eminent men. There will be a diplomatic reception for the delegates at the department of state and a large reception in their honor by Secretary Straus, of the department of Commerce and Labor. This Congress will also be received by the President.

Other conventions in session about the same time will be those of the Eastern Public association and the national association of Railway Commissioners the delegates to which will find their time fully occupied by sightseeing and entertainment when they are not engaged in convention work.
