ONE mistake men often make is in not having clothes enough. They seem to think two suits of clothes bought at one time, or two overcoats, would be extravagant.

The fact is, if you buy our Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes, two suits or two overcoats at a time would be economy. A raincoat, shown here, or a fancy fabric overcoat for daily wear; and a black or oxford overcoat for dress occasions; a fancy weave suit of some new color and pattern for business, and a black or blue serge for changing occasionally, and for dressier times; every man ought to have such an outfit.

You'd find it economy; and the clothes will all last longer if you don't wear them continuously; get them pressed occasionally.

We want to see our customers dressed right. We'll take care of it for you if you'll let us.

This store is the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

Bucretetta-Morhart.

Miss Mabel Buerstetta, one of Tecumseh's fair daughters, and Mr. Elbert L. Morhart, of Red Cloud, were married at high noon, Wednesday, October 7, 1908, the ceremony occurring at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Katharine Buerstetta, in this city. The parlor of the Buerstetta home had been tastily decorated for the occasion and a small company of relatives of the principals, gathered to witness the important event. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Richard Pearson, of the local Methodist church. Following a season of congratulations the company enjoyed a delightful four course dinner.

The bride is well known in Tecumseh and Johnson county, having been born and reared here. She is a lovely young lady of most pleasing personality. Having graduated from the Tecumseh High school with the class of '03 she engaged in teaching for five years, two of which were in the Mt. Auburn school, this county, one in the Humbolt school, and two in the Tecumseh school. The lady has made a pronounced success at this work and stands high in the ranks of the local teaching profession.

The groom is the son of Adam Morhart, the family being one of the best known and highly respected in Red Cloud. He is engaged in the hardware business with his brothers, and they also manage the Red Cloud opera house, the firm being Morhart Brothers. While the gentleman is not well known in Tecumseh his reputation is, and it is all that could be desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Morhart went to Red Cloud on the evening of the day stated, where they will go to housekeeping at once, beginning their married life under the most favorable circumstances, and the many friends of both will hope that they may enjoy many, many years of happy and prosperous wedded life. They will be at home to their friends after November 1.

The above notice was furnished us by the Tecumseh Chief. Bert is well known here as an industrious young man, and the Chief joins with a host of friends in wishing him and his bride a long and prosperous wedded life.

Bates-DeWolf.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bates, last Saturday at high noon, occurred the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss Myrtle, to Emory B. De Wolf. The bride is well known here, being born and raised in this part of the county. The groom came here from the eastern part of the state about a year ago, working for a time on the Argus, and is at present owner and editor of the Chief.

Only the relatives of the bride and groom were present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. George W. Hummel. After congratulations the guests were seated at the table and a bountiful dinner served. The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents. They have gone to housekeeping in the Sellars property in the northeast part of town where they are at home to their friends.
