An old man was accested recently in Manhattan. He was long haire I, dirty, ragged and altogether disreputable in Fay Arneson and family, of Walnut appearance. He had with him seven dogs, with which he slept and divided such food as people gave him. He lived around in the sheds and stacks until iting her sister, Mrs. R. G. Runchey, the owners would run him off, then he would take up his quarters elsewhere. Pinally he was charged with insanity and brought before the Riley county probate court. In trying to scrab him up a little and make him half way presentable before toking him into court. was held at the residence of Mr. Holds- the officer found something in an old and fifty $5 bill. MEN ARE HELPLESS AS CHILDREN

When Taken Suddenly III Here is a Common-Sense Safeguard.

Big, strong man is as helpless as an infant when he is suddenly ill.

The sturdiest chap in town usually loses his self control, and is utterly unable to regard his condition with the common sense that characterizes his every-day actions.

For example: He comes home tired, eats a heavy dinner and sits down to read and smoke away a quite evening. Sudden'y he notices a weight on his stomach: the sharp pain around his heart, and a feeling of suffication. Thoughts of heart disease rush over him, and his agony he fears the worsts His trouble was neute indigestion, brought on by overloading his tired stomnels. A couple of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets would have given him instant ratief-would have save d bim bours of
