It's going along to that time of year when you'll be thinking about squaring up all your debts, before the first of the year. You want to start in 1909 free from indebtedness. That's a good resolution stick to it—but don't forget that subscription money you owe the editor. This is a debt and should be paid along with the others so that we can pay up ours.

Mrs. John Fulton was down from Riverton Saturday.
