Arrested at Minden Nebr.

Minden, Neb., Dec. 28.—(special Telegram.)—Three men have been arrested in Minden and are being closely questioned in respect to their whereabouts on the night of the robbery of the Farmer's and Merchants Bank at Hartwell, and the state bank at Keene and the Ceresco Bank. These men who have been hanging about Minden for two or three months, have made numerous trips in the vicinity in a manner that attracted attention and caused the local officers to detain them. Two, Otis Leggett and Albert H. Carr, who are brothers-in-law, live at Red Cloud. The third gives his name as Claude Lloyd.—Omaha Bee.

The two young men, Otis Leggett and Bert Carr, referred to in the above dispatch to the Omaha Bee, are well known in this city, and their reputation is such that it will be hard to convince their friends that they are guilty of the crime of bank robbery without better evidence than the fact of their having made "numerous trips" coincident with the robberies. In fact we have it upon good authority that the county attorney has no evidence sufficient to hold them and they will very probably be released to-day (Thursday)

Australian Accent.

We follow England very closely. We speak of "lifts" as an Englishman does, and not of "elevators," as the American, but we have "paddock" instead of "fields," and "creeks" instead of "streams," and "scrubs" instead of "woods," and "pannkins" and "quart pots" and "billy tea" at picnics and all sorts of lively Australian things, which make one perfectly homesick to think about. All the same, I am never homesick for the crude Australian accent.—The British Australian.

Physical Hardships.

"It's a pity that the band's tour is a failure, but don't be too much cast down. Come, face the music."
"How can I, when I'm backing it?"
—Baltimore American.
