

HAVE you ever experienced that feeling of keen annoyance with the old style drop ball fountain pen, when the pen runs dry in the middle of a letter? Has your hand the operation of filling, messy, sticky, provoking parts to unsteady, painful fingers, leaky joints? You can eliminate all this by using

CONKLIN'S Self-Filling Fountain Pen

If it should run dry while writing, you would not feel in the least annoyed, not even a little bit, because you can calmly reach over and flip pen in nearest inkwell, press the "Concent-Filler" once, and instantly pen is full of ink. Done so quietly that your train of thought is not even broken.

Moreover, that filling operation keeps the feed channels clean and unclogged so that the flow of ink is always certain and continuous; never a talk, blot or skip; makes writing delightfully easy.

All sizes and points; come in and try them.

The people of this community were shocked by the unfortunate death of William Bohrer a brother of Bohrer Bros., school contractors. It seems that the young man left this city Saturday for Lincoln to which place he departed for the third announcement of his wedding in the Catholic church which would have occurred in about two weeks time. He was returning home when he was killed in a wreck near Burnham. The remains were identified in the Lincoln morgue by his bride to be. The sympathies of this community go out to the bereaved relatives.

The pastor of the Congregational church announced last Sunday that he would preach next Sunday evening a practical sermon on "The Public Schools Their Mission and Purpose." This sermon ought to be heard by all school children—the patrons of the school, the teachers and the school board of our Red Cloud school. Mr. Freeman is a practical school man having had years of experience in school work and is therefore able to give an interesting talk on the subject above announced. No one interested in our public schools can afford to miss it.

Rev. Hummel is home from the State Fair at Lincoln, and in notes that Webster county done her self proud and that she took 4th place in the central district, and came in competition with the corn product of the entire east half of the state, and they won numerous premiums as follows: 21 on field corn, 31 on white and yellow flint corn, 5th on large white dent, 31 on popcorn, 1st on 100 bushels, 21 on 100 bushels, 31 on baby lary, 21 on pile plant, 1st on alfalfa seed, 1st on flax seed, 1st on millet seed, 31 on table beets, 1st on white barley, 21 on spring eye and 4th on pumpkins.
