A delightful Hallowe'en party, in the nature of a farewell to Mrs. W. C. Frahm, was given at the home of Mrs. Ned Grimes by the P. E. O. on last Friday night. The house was tastefully and appropriately decorated with autumn leaves, fruits, and jack-o'-lanterns. Each cuts and wishes as to each variety, while shrewdly ghosts appeared and disappeared. The entertainment consisted of old-fashioned Hallowe'en frolics and the refreshments were in keeping with the season. As a token of the esteem in which she is held Mrs. Frahm was presented with a P. E. O. plate by Miss McKelgin, who expressed the regret that Chapter Y felt upon Mrs. Frahm's removal to Blue Hill.
Here is the way the papers will write up weddings ten years hence: "The bride looked very well in a traveling dress, but the eyes were centered upon the groom. He wore a dark suit that fitted his form perfectly and in his dainty gloved hands he carried a small rose. His curly hair was beautifully done and a delicate odor of hair oil of the best quality floated down the aisle as he passed. The young people will miss the fact that he is married. He is the only one of the many accomplished bachelors of the town and his winning ways. The bride was mainly a good-looking girl with a head and the groom will miss some of the luxuries to which he has been accustomed. A crowd of well-wishers saw him off at the depot."
