SUNNY SIDE.

J. W. Robertson has a mule sick with lung fever. John Holsworth says he is getting used to being called papa. Ernest Terrell went to Kansas with Marley McConkey's car last Monday. A flying machine would be pleasure; the farmers say the roads could hardly be rougher. Mark McConkey loads his car for Abilene, Kans. on Monday. He bought a farm near there last fall. Chas. Howe has a phone on line 18. The Basket Supper at Sunny Side was a pleasant affair. Receipts $20 on the new organ.

Our Namesake.

The famous Chief Red Cloud died last Friday at the Pine Ridge Agency at the age of 86 years. The old Sioux Chieftan leaves no mourners in this vicinity to grieve over his departure. His death would have been a pleasing diversion 28 to 30 years ago.

He died as he lived an enemy of the white race. This city however received its name from him and remains to testify of the greatness of that cruel chief.
