

Every One Who Comes to Cotting's for their Drug Wants is taking the straight road to drug store satisfaction

There is a sign that will help point out the way and keep you on the right track in Drug Buying.

Thousands and thousands were guided by it in 1909 and thousands more will make the buy this Season.

They know that that sign reads right, that it points out the straight true road to COTTING'S Drug Store. We invite you to join the procession for —1910—

CHAS. L. COTTING The Druggist.

We extend to all our former patrons a cordial invitation to renew their acquaintance and join in an effort to make Red Cloud's creamery one of the best in the state. Respectfully,
RED CLOUD CREAMERY ASSOCIATION
J. F. BECKLES, PRES.

Quite a gay party took place at the Congregational parsonage Tuesday evening of this week. The gathering was in honor of the home coming of a number of young men who are away either teaching or attending school, and most of them former members of Rev. A. A. Cressman's Sunday school class. Twelve were invited. The following were present: J. H. Kellogg, Chas. Kellogg, Bruce Beckwith, Ed. Taylor, Roy Teel, George Corner, Chas. Phares, Sidney Coombs, Glen Walker and Claude Pierce. Those invited and not present were Sheridan and Henry Phares. That the boys enjoyed themselves is assured from the fact that they were in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Cressman. They are young themselves and believe in fun and a good time. Refreshments consisting of sherbert, punch, cakes, cookies, wafers and home made candy were served during the evening. The time was spent in visiting, and giving school and college experiences by all present. The young men were profuse in their thanks and were unanimous in the opinion that Mr. and Mrs. Cressman were magnificent entertainers and the friends of young people. Long may they live.

Morrison Corner

Mr. George Corner made us highly indignant last night by getting married without first obtaining our consent and approval. George has been a sly fellow from short trousers up but we never believed he would wound us so deeply. His charming bride is Miss Della Morrison who is too well known to the people of Red Cloud to need any extended commendations from us. They were married by Rev. Cressman and Mr. Glenn Walker acted as best man and Miss Clara Burgess was the brides maid. The happy couple departed on 14 for Council Bluffs, Ia., and other eastern cities where they will spend some time in visiting. It's all right this time, George, but we won't forgive you again. We extend hearty congratulations.
