Stops Lameness

Much of the chronic lameness in horses is due to neglect.

See that your horse is not allowed to go lame. Keep Sloan's Liniment on hand and apply at the first sign of stiffness. It's wonderfully penetrating — goes right to the spot — relieves the soreness - limbers up the joints and makes the muscles elastic and pliant.

Here's the Proof.

Mr. G. T. Roberts of Resaca, Ga., R.F.D. No. 1, Box 43, writes: — "I have used your Liniment on a horse for sweeney and effected a thorough cure. I also removed a spavin on a mule. This spavin was as large as a guinea egg. In my estimation the best remedy for lameness and soreness is

Sloan's

Mr. H. M. Gibbs, of Lawrence, Kans., R.F.D. No. 3. writes:— "Your Lini-ment is the best that I have ever used. I had a mare with an abscess on her neck and one 50c, bottle of Sloan's Liniment entirely cured her. I keep it around all the time for galls and small swellings and for everything about the stock,"

Sloan's Liniment will kill a spavin, curb or splint, reduce wind puffs and swollen joints, and is a sure and speedy remedy for fistula, sweeney, founder and thrush.

LIKE BASHFUL BOY

FAMOUS EXPLORER STOOD BE-FORE FELLOW DINERS.

Eulogistic Speeches Too Much for Henry M. Stanley, Whom His Comrades in Africa Knew as Man of Iron.

"Before I met Henry M. Stanley," says William H. Rideing in McClure's, I had talked with men who had been under him in his African expeditions. and all they told me about him was more or less appalling.

"He was not inhuman, but in desperate straits he spared neither man nor beast, nor would be defer to the counsel or the pleas of others or have any patience with less than instant and unquestioning obedience to his orders under all circumstances. He would not forbear under arguments or excuses or relax his severity by any familiarity or pleasantries, even when his object had been gained. He was both despot and martinet; stern, exacting, uncompromising, silent, humorless, inscrutable, Cromwellian.

"I cannot say that we loved him," one of his lieutenants said to me; 'we were all afraid of him, but we all believed in him. When he hadn't his rifle in hand he had his Bible, and no matter where our camp was or how long and distressing our march had been he never missed his bath and shave in the morning."

This aspect of the explorer was very different from that which he showed to the guests at a dinner which the Papyrus club of Boston gave in his

"Whether he sat or stood," says Mr. Rideing, "he fidgeted and answered in monosyllables, not because he was unamiable or unappreciative but because he-this man of iron, whose word in the field brooked no contradicdiction or evasion, he who defied obstacles and danger and pierced the heart of darkness-was bashful even in the company of fellow craftsmen.

"His embarrassment grew when after dinner the chairman eulogized him to the audience; he squirmed and averted his face as cheer after cheer confirmed the speaker's rhetorical ebullience of praise. Gentlemen, I introduce to you Mr. Stanley, who,' etc.

"The hero stood up slowly, painfully, reluctantly, and with a gesture of deprecation fumbled in first one and then another of his pockets without finding what he sought. It was supposed that he was looking for his notes, and more applause took the edge off the delay.

"His mouth twiched without speech for another awkward minute before, with a more erect bearing, he produced the object of his search and put it on his head. It was not paper, but a rag of a cap, and with that on he faced the company as one who by that act had done all that could be expected of him, and made further acknowledgment of the honors he had received superfluous. It was a cap that Livingstone had worn and that Livingstone had given him."

Changing Conditions.

"Death the Meddler," who stalks in upon us, often unannounced, always terrifying, plays sad havoe with the tenor of our lives, cutting short cherished plans and ambitions with a hopelessness that admits of no alleviation, says the Charleston News and Courier. The change that follows in his wake is sharp and sudden, and the task of trying to cover up the broken places and adjust ourselves to the new conditions is no easy one. Death, however, is not the only factor concerned in effecting some of the most vital changes in our life's routine. We forget to take account of time; we fail to realize that the service we render to others will not always satisfy them and that other interests will come into their lives in which we can have no part. We have been so contented, the family circle so complete, that when the shadow of some coming change first throws itself across our path we can hardly recognize its true import. We try to imagine that wo do not see its dim outlines; we try to delude ourselves into believing that it will pass us by, and yet in our hearts we know that it is there. We do not fully realize the advantages of familiar intercourse until that intercourse is interrupted and we suddenly face the loss which has come into our life.

The New Hen.

Of the late Atherton Blight, one of the founders of fashionable Newport, a Philadelphian said at the Rittenhouse club:

"Mr. Blight was amused by the antics of the militant suffrageties. At a Christmas luncheon at the Bellevue he once sat next to a lady with suffragette notions. Plovers' eggs, hard boiled formed one course, and the lady called Mr. Blight's attention to the high cost of plovers' eggs this

"'Even though,' she said, 'they have to be shipped from England, I don't see why their price should have nearly doubled, do you?"

"'Well-er-not exactly,' murmured Mr. Blight, 'though they do say that the hen plovers have taken to acting very oddly of late-strutting round, and growing topknots and spurs, and even trying to learn to crow."

BACKACHE—A SIGNAL OF DISTRESS

A WARNING THAT MUST NOT BE IGNORED

Pain in the back is the kidneys' signal of distress. If this timely warning is ignored, kidney disease silently fastens its deadly grip-for kidney sickness first shows itself in pains and disorders in other parts, and the real cause is too often hidden until fatal Bright's disease or diabetes has set in. Suspect the kidneys if you are rheumatic and nervous or have lame back, painful, too frequent or scanty urination, weak heart, dizzy spells, headaches, bloating or neuralgia. What you want is a special kidney medicine - not an experiment, but one that has stood the test for years. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve weak, congested kidneys—cure backache—regulate the urine.

A KIDNEY REMEDY OF 75 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS began curing lame backs and sick kidneys 75 years ago. The demand lead a nearby druggist, James Doan, to prepare it for sale. From him the magic formula passed to the present proprietors. Now, as in those early days, Doan's Kidney Pills are made from only the purest drugs and are absolutely non-poisonous. They are used and praised all over the civilized world.

Every Picture Tells A Story

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS MAKE LASTING CURES

J. R. Black, 1005 E. Sixth street, Topeka, Kansas, says: 'In the spring of 1899 Doan's Kidney Pills brought me such great relief that I did not hesitate to make the fact known and give this remedy my most earnest endorsement. In my statement I said that for three years I had suffered from kidney complaint. I had a dull grumbling ache across the small of my back that greatly inconvenienced me when reaching and straining in doing my work. An annoying kidney weakness was also in evidence and it was out of the question for me to sleep well. In the morning I was all tired out and it can be seen that I was in bad shape. The use of Doan's Kidney Fills quickly and surely drove away these symptoms of kidney complaint and I have since been in good

The foregoing statement was given in March 1905, and when Mr. Black was interviewed on Nov. 12, 1908, he said: 'I have never had a return attack of kidney complaint and I know that my cure is a permanent one. My faith in Doan's Kidney Pills is stronger than ever.

Mrs. James Crooks, First St., N. W., American Fork, Utah, says, "I had kidney complaint for ten years or more. Sometimes a twinge darted through the small of my back and loften became so helpless that I was compelled to go to bed with my clothes on. The attacks often lested for days at a time and I could not even stoop to put on my shoes. My condition was certainly alarming. The secretions from my kidneys were irregular in passage and contained a heavy sediment after standing. I well know what the misery kidney complaint causes and I can therefore appreciate the merits of a remedy that cures this disease. Doan's Kidney Pills lived up to the claims made for them in my case and effected a cure. My kidneys were restored to a normal condition and my health greatly improved." (Statement given Aug. 22.1907.) On Aug. 24, 1909, Mrs. Crooks was interviewed by one of our representatives and she said: gives me pleasure to reendorse Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured my backache and my health is now good. Other members of my family have taken this remedy with decided benefit."

Another Day's Delay and the Result Would Have Been Unfortunate -For the Physician.

A lady was very solicitous about her health. Every trifle made her uneasy, and the doctor was called immediately.

The doctor was a skillful man, and consequently had a large practice. It was very disagreeable to him to be so often called away from his other cases for nothing, and he resolved to take an opportunity of letting the lady see this. One day the lady observed a red spot on her hand, and at once sent for the doctor. He came, looked at her hand, and said:

"You did well to send for me early." The lady looked alarmed and asked: "Is it dangerous, then?"

"Certainly not," replied the doctor. "To-morrow the spot would have disappeared, and I should have lost my fee for this visit."

A TRAIN LOAD OF TOBACCO.

Twenty-four Carloads Purchased for Lewis' Single Binder Cigar Factory.

What is probably the biggest lot of all fancy grade tobacco held by any factory in the United States has just been purchased by Frank P. Lewis, of Peoria, for the manufacture of Lewis' Single Binder Cigars. The lot will make twenty-four carloads, and is selected from what is considered by experts to be the finest crop raised in many years. The purchase of tobacco is sufficient to last the factory more than two years. An extra price was paid for the selection. Smokers of Lewis' Single Binder Cigars will appreciate this tobacco.
