Misses Sarah and Martha Hansen, Miss Sarah and Hugh McPartland and Messrs. Louis and Willie Yavricka were pleasant callers at Jelineks Sunday afternoon.

ALL ALONG THE LINE

Miss Laura Hedge is visiting her sister, Mrs. Orin Harvey.

Harry Barker bought a horse last week of Dean Harvey.

There have been several business changes in our town lately.

The snow is going fast and we are not sorry. Enough is enough.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Harvey are rejoicing over the advent of a young son.

Mable Jorgenson is working for Mrs. Will Carpenter who has two sick children.

Mrs. A. C. Hale is a great deal better and we shall be glad to see her among us again.

Otto Bringelson is rejoicing over a son and heir, who answers to the name of John.

Rev. Hollingsworth was making pastoral calls on his Pleasant Prairie parishes this week.

The Rodger Bros. have shipped their cattle and are going to rest the remainder of the winter.

A social dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Charley Martin Saturday night. A good time is reported.

Ralph Hunter has traded his blue gray team for a big span of mules. Swede is fond of the long eared brutes.

The comet just now is the point of attraction and according to Holmes it has ten million cubic miles of head and ten billion leagues of tail.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin leave for their old home in Missouri this week. The boys will be greatly missed out of the school as they are general favorites.

Inavale's home talent gave an entertainment at the Christian church Tuesday evening. The play was very well rendered and there was a fair attendance.

Rev. Roland Hill is in Inavale again. There is an old proverb that "home is where the heart is." Perhaps that is why he wanders back every other week, however we are glad to see him.

GARFIELD

The Fisher girls are better this week.

John Armstrong and wife took a wedding trip through Garfield this week.

George Harris is shredding corn fodder by hand. Tart Sherman blows the whistle.

Frank Amack tried stacking his dog last summer but Cudhay says it did not keep good.

Pete and Alfred Manley took in the sites at the Opera House in Red Cloud Monday night.

Look pleasant, no use to frown. Anybody is liable to slip out of the road on another man's farm nowadays.

Paul White is the janitor at the Pope school house, but the school man rode out from town and beat him one cold morning.

Earl Hall was seen going down wind mill row the other night with two other roosters tied on the saddle. Where did you get them Earl?

YOUR HEALTH!

Would seem to demand that you read what Ambrose L. Ranney, A. M. M. D., late professor of Anatomy, New York Hospital, says:

"Eye-strain may, and often does, cause chronic and intractable disturbances of the stomach. Chronic intestinal and gastric disturbances may be and often are, companions in graver disturbances of the nervous system, due to eye-strain.

Our glasses are made to relieve eyestrain.
NEWHOUSE BROS.
JEWELERS & OPTOMETRISTS.

There was something seen going down the road the other day and on close inspection it was found to be Will White and his new horse and cutter.

Talk about your prosperous farmers but Manley Bros. beats them all for they raised a pair of twin calves last spring and another pair this week but one is dead and Pete says "we will get its hide any how."

Mr. Beatty left last Thursday night for a surprise visit with his son and daughter in Wyoming and his son arrived at Red Cloud on Friday morning from Wyoming for a surprise visit with his father and sister, Mrs. L. A. Manley, but father and son passed one another on the train about the Colorado line.
