Saturday 125 cases of eggs were purchased by the merchants and buyers here. Tuesday morning there was shipped from Guide Rock 159 cases or 4770 dozen or 57240 eggs. They brought $866.55. Wm. Montgomery's shipment alone amounted to $228.45.

Mr. Creps is going on crutches as the result of an operation on his ankle to remove a bullet which had been there several years and last week began to give him trouble. It was removed at the Hospital at Burr Oak. He is getting along nicely.

GARFIELD

The fine weather still continues. The sick folks at Manley's are better this week.

Guy Barnes is improving the golden moments by cutting stalks. Breaking colts seems to be the order of the day on wind mill row.

Good Friday will soon be here if it is not to d— cold plant potatoes.

Will Fisher sold John Campbell some corn last week for sixty cents.

Amack, Barnes and Fisher called on Grant Shidler and family last Sunday.

Edgar Throne taught school four days last week while Miss Engels was sick.

T. W. White has a little colt the first in the neighborhood and it is a dandy.

Fred Smith shelled corn on wind mill row last week for Barnes and Fisher.

Tompson has the foundation for his house about completed and will soon begin on the frame work.

Henry Emerton took a load of hogs to Red Cloud Friday. He says it beats the market at Guide Rock.

We understand that Fred Smith will move to Riverton. We hate to lose a good long man from our midst.

Charley Campbell went to Guide Rock last Friday and bought a new manure spreader and a water tank.

Frank King took five loads of hogs to market Saturday for which he got a little better than ten cents a pound.

Manley Bros. started their gang plow Monday and Pete looks natural setting up there behind four horses.

N. P. Campbell hauled his hogs in and shipped them Wednesday and Bert King shipped his hogs and cattle the same day.

Mr. Jackson's has a new border at their place. It just arrived on Monday. It can't say papa but it makes him mind just the same. Step around dad.

Henry Wiggins and Artie Richerson went down to the Kaley ranch to get a span of mules to brake and they got about two miles from home and one of them pulled back and choked and died in a little bit and they drug him off and turned the other one loose to go home and quit the mule business for a while.

Geo. Pierce is confined to his bed with pneumonia and is a little better at this writing.

Buelah Elberta, the three month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Holliday was buried at the Pleasant Hill cemetery Monday March 21, 1910. They have the sympathy of the community.

ALL ALONG THE LINE (Delayed)

Our men neighbors the Carpenters on the Rodgers place have began farming.

Our young nim roes are having fun popping away at the wild geese and ducks just now.

There seems to be quite a lot of sickness around seems a pity to be sick this lovely weather.

March is certainly on his good behavior but O! look out you will be apt to hear his roar about Easter.

Mrs. Sorgenson the Champion hen woman has one hundred and forty little chickens. Who can beat that?

Breaking stalks and plowing for oats is the order of the day now for the men and setting hens and planning the garden for the women.

If Edwin Markham lived in Nebraska he would have no time to pity (the man with the hoe) he would be so busy taking off his hat to the man with the HOE.

GUIDE ROCK.
