Vienna .- Colonel Roosevelt was re ceived at the Amstrian capital Erfdur in a manner almost like that accorded a reigning sovereign. The punctillous Austrian court, the most coremonious of those of Europe, had arranged the . program and left nothing undone which could emphasize the unprecedented honor being paid the visiting American. As a special mark of his personal esteem, the aged emperorking, Francis Joseph, received Colonel Recovert in his private apartments at the imposing Holburg palace instead of in the regular audience chamber. The monarch, who was attired in an imperial uniform, was extremely graclous to the American ex-president and kept him in conversation for thirty five minutes. What interesting sub jects they found to discuss as they were alone Colonel Roosevelt natur-

Ruling by Excise Board.

The Excise board, at a recent meeting, repealed rule 12, which has become famous since the city has been without saloons. This rule provides that no common carrier may bring liquor into the city and deliver it at the home of any citizen. The rule made it necessary for the common carrier to deliver the liquor at its place of business and the man to whom it had been consigned had to go there and sign for it himself. The decision made it unlawful for a man to send an agent for the goods.

1910. During that time the receipts and disbursements have been as follows: e Balance on hand January 7, 1909, $473.259.98; receipts, $7.177, 466.02; total. $7.650,725.95. Disbursements, $6,873,292.76; balance on hand March 21, 1910, $777,433.19.

Clearing House Figures.

Lincoln clearing house figures indicate an unusual growth of business between this year and last year for the same period. Total clearings for March, 1910, foot up $9,073,379 as opposed to $7,646,377 for this month in 1909. This growth of business in the sum of 20 per cent. was largely due to the extensive land transfers, both in the state and outside. In the selling and buying of Texas land during the past winter. These sales were un usually settled for early in March, and such transactions in all parts of the state are in a measure reflected in Lincoln clearing house totals...
