Yes, its the little that hurt. A common every-day measly little fly will make an orthodox Christian swear forty strokes to the minute, which if the same man had his head taken off by a July tornado he wouldn't say a word about it.

If there is a chance to boom business, boom it. Don't put on a long face and look as though you had a stomach-ache. Hold up your head, smile and look for better things. Hide your little hammer, and try to speak well of others, no matter how small you may know yourself to be.

With the great increase of values in heavy draft horses, it is but natural that the eastern importers will make strenuous efforts to show at the Nebraska State Fair, Sept. 5th to 9th, and Superintendent J. A. Ollis of Ord is feeling that this department will make such a record as to fully satisfy all visitors, exhibitors and breeders, who are sure to be present in great numbers.

A town that never has anything to do in a public way, is on the way to the cemetery. Any citizen who will do nothing for his town is helping to dig the grave. A man that curses the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to give to city affairs is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is driving the hearse. The man who is always pulling back from any public enterprise throws bouquets on the grave. The man who is so stingy as to be howling hard times, preaches the funeral, sings the doxology, and thus the town lies buried from all sorrow and care.
