GARFIELD

Another fine rain last week. Mrs. Spencer Andrews is improving from her recent sickness. Pretty cold nights for corn to grow but good nights to sleep. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon from Kansas were visiting at Manley's Sunday. George Houchin has been on the sick list for a week but is some better now. T. W. White treated himself to a brand new spring wagon one day this week. Albert Dority was down to Will Fishers Sunday after Cap. Houchin's trotting horse. There was a good crowd at the M. E. church Sunday night. The Rev. Pool from Guide Rock preached. Ray Davis has resigned his position on the Kaley ranch and has accepted a position with Sherm Shipman. Will Fisher and children attended the services at the church Sunday and then spent the afternoon at Charlie Alles. Mrs. Manley thinks Clyde Simpson has got quite a start for a young man to mind the baby and hoe in the garden all at once. Walter White who has been visiting his brother, T. W. White and family for a week returned to his home in Lincoln Saturday. Pete Manley has been breaking the Dr. Asher broncho this week. He works her on the disk now and says the fun is all over. We have frosted our feet riding a planter planting corn but never had to wear a fur overcoat a disking corn before until last Thursday.

George Amack and family were out on wind mill row Sunday and spent the afternoon with T. W. White's. They came out in their automobile. The Children's day exercises at the Ash Creek church were good and the children did fine and better than most of the older folks could do. There was a large crowd present. Arthur Robinson was out on wind mill row Sunday and started for the church but just before he got there he turned to the right, but you are all right Arthur if Miss Wright thinks you are all right.

GUIDE ROCK.

Mrs. Lizzie Jewell is ill. Nellie Stickleby visited her cousins in the country this week. E. J. Moore made a trip by auto to Hastings one day this week. E. T. Merriman and family have moved to a farm near Smith Center, Kas. Mrs. N. M. Doudou entertained the Kensington club Wednesday afternoon. Miss Ethel Garber has been visiting relatives here. She went to Red Cloud Tuesday evening. The Eastern Star installed officers Monday night and initiated a new member and served lunch. Division four of the M. E. aid society served "coffee" at the home of Mrs. Harry Vaughan Thursday of this week. The Methodist Sunday school had a good program Sunday morning in observance of Children's Day. The Baptist school held their exercises in the evening. Both were largely attended. The Christians had their program a week earlier.

The Rebekah lodge here gave a spelling school and served a lunch Friday evening. They made about $16. Robt Garrison and wife and E. S. Garber and wife went to Lebanon Kans. by auto Wednesday to Al Hayes and wife. Mrs. Thorton and L. G. Smith and wife drove over to Ira Columbia's Sunday. Mrs. Columbia is a daughter of Mrs. Thorton. Mrs. Roy Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivans Amack, has been very ill. She was reported a little better Monday morning. Loyd Amack has rented the Merriman property. He will conduct the new furniture store to be opened in the Crow building. I. N. Smith and daughter Mrs. Idella Watt returned the last of this week from a ten day visit with relatives at Dresden, Kas. E. E. Burr received a message Saturday announcing the death of his daughter Mrs. Julia Ethel Watson at her home in Pueblo, Colo., of typhoid fever. The Chief extends congratulations upon the marriage of Miss Kate Blackwell and Mr. Meredith Guy which occurred June 15 at Clayton, Kas. The bride is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Blackwell formerly of this county. The groom is the second son of Andy Guy of Guide Rock. C. A. Nelson and wife and daughter Valentine who came last week from San Antonio, Texas to visit relatives and old time friends departed Sunday for the west. They will visit at Cheyenne, Wyoming and Portland, Oregon. They will settle near Los Angeles, Calif.

SUNNY SIDE.

Connie Rasser is the possessor of a new buggy. Lyman Essig went to St. Joe with stock Sunday. Amos Miksch quit Jos. Crow and is working for Tim Topban. Johnny Cummings and wife entertained a few neighbors Sunday. The wheat crop has improved wonderfully and promises a fair crop. Will Robertson shipped his last cars of hogs and cattle Sunday to St. Joe. Ed. Rasser Sr. thinks Nebraska beats Wisconsin as he was there about three weeks and saw the sun three times.

LESTER

Mr. Bernard Hulsebush has a new auto. Jim Doyle and family spent Sunday at George McKinneys. The Amboy Milling Co., shipped two car loads of hogs Wednesday. Miss Grace Frisbie returned from Lincoln for her summer vacation. Mrs. John Holcomb and Mrs. John Rasser were picking goose berries this week. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Amack and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Blair spent Sunday at Lanes. Edson Miner and Jos Britten were seen on the streets of Lester Sunday evening. A picnic was given Tuesday in Frisbie's grove. Quite a number were out from Red Cloud. Mr. Throne will lecture at the Lester school house Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Everybody come. The Rasser relatives' picnic was given at the river Sunday. There were 50 relatives present. They all report a good time.

BATIN

Fine corn weather this week. Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Pavlick spent Sunday at Mr. Fitz's. John Doyle Sundayed with his brother, Lawrence. Lawrence Dorle is nearly over his corn the second time. Misses Minnie and Margaret Kellat were in Red Cloud Tuesday.

Millard, Willard and Elsie Pavlick visited with Terese Kellat Sunday. Mr. John Miller of Alma spent Saturday and Sunday in this locality. All the girls in this vicinity are itching for a ride in Joe Vavricka's new auto. Roscoe Crowell went to Lincoln Sunday night where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. The dance at Mike Kudrna's last Saturday night was largely attended and everybody enjoyed themselves.

WESTERN WEBSTER

Mr. and Mrs. George Debrunner are the proud parents of a fine baby girl. Miss Frankie Martin of Guide Rock visited over Sunday at Chris Jorgenson's. Mr. Harry Hunt and Miss Wilma Pierpont were married in Red Cloud Saturday. All good wishes and congratulations to the happy pair. The quarterly meeting service at 41 last Sunday afternoon was well attended. Rev. Martin preached an excellent sermon. He also held service at Inavale Sunday night. There will be Children's Day exercises at 41 next Sunday afternoon, also a Children's Day program will be given in Inavale at the M. E. church Sunday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend both services. Word reaches us from the western part of the state that Miss Nellie Ireland formerly a Western Webster girl has lately become the bride of a wealthy ranch owner. Her many friends here wish her a long and happy married life.
