Announcement.

Having been nominated by the Democratic and People's Independent parties for the office of County Attorney of Webster County, I take this method of announcing my candidacy and would most respectfully solicit your consideration at the coming election. If elected I shall to the best of my ability fairly and impartially perform the duties of County Attorney, laying aside all political considerations and having in mind only the best interests of all the people of Webster County, regardless of party affiliations. During my campaign I shall not allow myself to become obligated by any political entanglements and if elected shall enter upon the duties of the office free from restraint or influence of any person or set of persons and hampered by no anti-election strings or promises. If elected my sole aim shall be to protect and promote the best interests of all the people of Webster County.
 FRED MAURER, RED CLOUD, NEB.

Weather conditions never were more ideal than this fall. There has been plenty of rain, the sun shines hot, the corn fills and fills, winter wheat is excellent and another crop of alfalfa is in sight. All crops considered this is the best year in the history of Webster County.

R. D. Sutherland, democratic candidate for congress from this district, owes his popularity to no spectacular flights during a political upheaval. He has gained a reputation for doing things by steady everyday effort with out any bluster or noise. Mr. Sutherland demonstrated when he was a member of congress that he had the ability necessary for that high office and he always voted as he thought right regardless of political favor or influence. His popularity is growing from day to day and he appeals to the intelligence of those voters who believe that the interests of the people are of much significance than the interests of the corporations. He is for the man and not the dollar. He is a man of flesh and blood and is worthy of your support.

Mr. Fred Maurer, candidate for county attorney is a self made man. By his own efforts he has made good and owes his success to no clique or machine. His record will bear the closest investigation and if elected he will carry out the duties of that office unhampered by any influence of any character. Mr. Maurer runs his own affairs in a gentlemanly persistent manner.

The crowded condition of our streets the past month demonstrates that people appreciate the fact that Red Cloud is a good place in which to trade. Business is good and our merchants know that it is good business policy to give good values for the people's money. People like to trade where they are well treated and where they receive a square deal and that is the reason they come to Red Cloud.

Perhaps the wisest course of procedure for the former city council to pursue was the one in which they followed in leasing the city bank building inasmuch as it will save advertising and election expenses. There will be no hunting for a customer and no delays or waits. Just how soon the present council will act will probably be determined by what line of action they will adopt. At any rate the selling proposition is simplified.

The meeting of the citizens Wednesday to consult in regard to the water question again demonstrates that we should have some method by which the people could get together and discuss civic affairs. If these meetings could be arranged so that there could be some regularity about them it would be much better because one is not always at his best in an emergency. These hurried calls are apt to result in snap judgement conclusions. Once again the Chief desires to be put on record as favoring the town meeting.

Arsene L'Heureux, candidate for state senator was a pleasant caller this week. Mr. L'Heureux is a gentleman in every respect and it does not take long to learn that he is a thinker of no mean ability. He believes in majority rule and holds to the opinion that the initiative and referendum is the best means of solving all questions of state importance. Whatever the majority desire join in and help carry it out. He believes that division is disastrous and utterly condemns the rule or ruin principle.

The Webster County Fair at Bladen last week drew large crowds and the fair was undoubtedly a success. We heard considerable grumbling at the fifty cents single admission charge at the gate. It might be necessary to make this charge but we doubt it. Usually the money at county fairs is all given over to horse races but we believe that a more successful fair could be maintained if more attention were paid to the vegetable, grain and live stock products. We are a county of farmers and farmers are interested in things relating to the farm.

During political campaigns you will notice in most newspapers a little statement "political advertising." Whenever you see that you will know that the editor does not assume any responsibility for what appears in these columns any more than he does in any of the other advertising columns. Newspaper men have their space for sale and so long as the matter is not objectionable they care little whether a party advertises his goods

The recent accidents in the automobile world ought to be a warning to the American people, to the residents of Nebraska, to the citizens of Webster County. There is altogether too much reckless driving. People get careless and in some instances drivers seem to think that the rest of mankind have no rights. We would welcome a law that would compel every driver to obtain a license before being permitted to drive on the public highways. We have no fault to find with the machines themselves nor with most of the drivers but the careless disregard of other people ought to be severely condemned.

The outcome of the meeting of the citizens to consider the water problem clearly demonstrated that this community is heartily opposed to any further digging of the creek bottom. Pet hobbles will be relegated to the rear forever we trust. Mistakes have been made in past years but they are excusable because they were carried out to learn the nature of that bottom but with every experiment a failure the lesson surely ought to be well learned that further expenditure of public funds in that direction is unqualifiedly opposed by the public sentiment. We trust that for the next thousand years we will not be pained with any reference to digging ditches for water in the creek bottoms.

A thing too frequently overlooked in our public schools is the literary feature: "speaking, essay writin' and sich." The attainment of happily expressing one's thoughts and vividly portraying with pen the occurrences that meet us is rare--almost the exception--yet but few things are more advantageous; and a lack of this, though wise and learned in many things, places one at great disadvantage in life, while a lack in many many things, yet proficient in this one particular, will carry the possessor further on the way to success than aught else. The time for acquiring this "neglected feature" is often begun too late in life, when embarrassments become too great to be overcome. It should begin with the child. When he is mastering his monosyllables let him acquire the faculty of telling what he knows and sees in monosyllables, and let this be his daily, not weekly or monthly task, and as he advances in years he will advance in this, and his graduating effort, while it will be his best, it will not be a sort of spasmodic, unnatural effort for the occasion, never again to be attempted in life.

Be Natural

Heaven help the man who imagines he can dodge enemies by trying to please everybody! If such an individual ever succeeds pass him over this way that we may have one look at his mortal remains ere he vanishes away for surely this earth cannot be his abiding place. Now we do not infer that one should be going through this world trying to find beams to knock and thump his head against, disputing every man's opinion, fighting and elbowing and crowding all who differ from him. That, again, is another extreme. Other people have their opinions, so have you. Don't fall into the error of supposing they will respect you more for turning your coat every day, to match the color of theirs. Wear your own clothes in spite of wind and weather, storms and sunshine. It costs the irresolute ten times the trouble to wind, and shuffle, and twist than it does honest manly independence to stand.

Good-Bye

It is a hard word to speak. Some may laugh that it should be, but let them. My hearts are never kind. It is a word that has charmed many an utterance, and started many a tear. The hand is clasped, the word is spoken, we part, and are out on the ocean of time--we go to meet again, where? God only knows. It may be soon, it may be never. Take care that your good-bye be not a cold one--it may be the last one you can give. Ere you meet again death's cold hand may have closed his eyes and chained his lips forever. Ah! he may have died thinking you loved him not. Again it may be a long separation. Friends crowd on and give you their hands. How do you detect in each good-bye the love that lingers there; and how may you bear with you the memory of these parting words many days? We must separate. Tear not yourself away with a careless boldness that defies all love, but make your words linger--give your heart full utterance--and if tears fall, what of it? Tears are not unmanly.

Geo. W. Lindsey, Democratic Candidate for Representative of Webster County, Nebr.

The object of this card is two-fold: First of all to thank you sincerely, for your royal support in nominating me--a compliment which any man may well be proud of.
 Second, it is my way of introducing myself into the political arena "Let's shake"--now that we are acquainted let's get to biz. I am a Candidate for Representative for Webster County--the best County in the State. It is YOUR HOME, it is MY HOME. Our first and great object should be to make laws that shall BUILD UP and PROTECT all of the HOMES of Webster County! To this "Common Cause" let me ask the support of every voter.
 Thanking you for whatever you may be able to do for me, and pledging you, if elected, my very best efforts for all of Webster County.
 In this age of political Chicanery every voter has a right to know what his representative stands for. He should declare himself openly, and "on the square," and when elected, should thus conduct himself.
 Government first, party second; principles first, party second; men first and party second. This is MY political creed.
 Business principles should be inculcated into politics to the end that all needless expense may be saved.
 Biennial elections is what the tax payers want, it would save thousands of dollars.
 The present Primary Law is a needless double-tax upon the taxpayers, and should be repealed.
 The Agriculture Interest of our County demands better roads. A law should be enacted providing for smaller road districts in the counties, with local self-government. All moneys for roads and bridges should be equitably apportioned and distributed among the several counties.
 I stand for County Option, and firmly believe that Good Government and Public Morals will be best served in that way.
 Respectfully submitted,
 GEO. W. LINDSEY.
