E. H. NEWHOUSE

Wanted Red Cross Seals Before She Died.

A man walked up to a Red Cross Christmas Seal booth in New York a few days ago and, after fumbling around till he found a dollar in his pocket, asked for a hundred seals. He seemed to want to say something, and, the chance being given, he told how these greetings were to be put on some letters, cards, and little packages his wife was to send out this Christmas.

"She told me to be sure to get them," he said, "and so I came here before going to the shop, for it is the last Christmas she'll have a chance to remember those she loves. The doctor says she may hold out till after New Year's, but her cough 's so bad now I don't much think she will."

Then he turned quickly and hurried away.
