Here's a low--price picnic going on; you're invited YOU'RE probably not very different from the rest of us when it comes to getting some unusual value for your money; it's human nature, and everybody's got some of that in them.

We've made up our minds to clean up this stock of good things to wear; to clear out all fall and winter goods and start the spring season with an entirely new lot of stuff.

In order to do it we're quoting prices on these things that are good enough reason for any man who likes to get good things for less than they're really worth to come here on the run.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

clothes are among these goods; and when any man can get Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes at less than the usual prices he's certainly not very wise if he doesn't do it.

There are a lot of other good things, too; we'll give you an idea of what to expect here:

20 per cent Discount Continues This Week.

Just as much care, in fact a little more, should be exercised in buying electric sad irons, as in buying anything else. Some irons use more electricity than others in doing the same work. Get your electric irons of MORHARR BROS., they carry the authorized iron. Be careful of "just as good" electric irons.

Mr. Beauchamp has a way of illustrating his points with apt stories, and while the mouth is open to laugh, thrusting in a bit of serious thought, which is made doubly effective by the contrast—Normal Eye, State University, Cedar Falls, Iowa. Mr. Beauchamp will appear at the Red Cloud Opera House March 6, as the last number of the lecture course.

He kept the audience in an uproar of side-splitting laughter. His shafts, pointed with wit, and feathered with humor, had in them enough weight to make them go straight to the mark.—Des Moines (Iowa) Capital. Mr. Beauchamp is the last number of the Lecture Course and will be at the Opera House March 6th seats on sale at Cook's Drug Store.
