Every election develops a crop of voters who seem unable to mark their ballots in a manner to have them counted. The method of marking the ballots under the Australian system is so simple it would seem impossible for anyone to go wrong, yet at Tuesday's election about a dozen ballots in the First ward and several in the Second ward were thrown out because of being incorrectly marked. One "wet" voter in the Second ward was so anxious to let his sentiments become known that he signed his name to his ballot, which, of course, invalidated it.

On Sunday evening the second of the illustrated sermons will be given; subject: "The Fruitless Tree." Come expecting a blessing. All made welcome.

Don't Be Bald

Nearly Anyone May Secure a Splendid Growth of Hair

We have a remedy that has a record of growing hair and curing baldness in 93 out of every 100 cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and we mean it to be, and no one should doubt it until they have put our claims to an actual test.
We are so certain Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will cure dandruff, prevent baldness, stimulate the scalp and hair roots, stop falling hair and grow new hair, that we personally give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid us for it in every instance where it does not give entire satisfaction to the user.
Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as clear spring water. It is delightfully perfumed, and does not grease or gum the hair. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. With our guarantee back of it, you certainly take no risk. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, The H. E. Grice Drug Co.

Clarence Mitchell Making Good.

Mitchell of Red Cloud in the State league last year is said to be the most promising young twirler on the Tiger staff. Thereby hangs a tale. The Athletics scout was in town last summer and tipped it off to Jimmy Sullivan that he was going to Red Cloud, Despain beat him there and landed an option on Mitchell for a month before O'Brien got on the job. Detroit also looked the lad over. After watching him work a few times, Despain decided that the kid did not have the stuff and passed him up. The Philadelphia club doing the same. If Mitchell makes good it will be a joke on D. D. and Connie Mack.—Lincoln Star.

The Sporting News of St. Louis says that the Detroit management has decided to keep Mitchell until along in midseason and probably carry him all season. His many friends and well-wishers here hope that he will make good.

Oh Where is the Man?

Written by Mrs. Anna L. Parker in honor of the Horse.

"Oh Where is the man," said the horse one day, with its head reined up, as it passed over the way. Who has taken all my enjoyment away? Who invented the check to hold my head high. Till my neck cramps so much, I wish I could die? He must have been wicked; he surely did know how cruel 'twould be to treat a horse so!

I go to be kind to this master of mine, I go fast or slow to the touch of the line.
If I only could move my head up and down it would not seem half so far to the town.
But to hold my neck stiff, with my eyes toward the sky—No wonder I stumble! You ought to know why. How would YOU like to look toward the sun when its glare almost blinds you? Do you think 'twould be fun?

I can't see the road; I can't tell my woes; And many will follow Dame Style where she goes.
So they buy the check-rein to torture their beast. To add to their dignity, tho' it don't in the least.
Everyone loves a kind man the best, One who is kind to his horse and the rest.

They are riding behind me, with no feeling of shame; They're laughing and talking with no thought of my pain. This cramping position! My head, how it aches! My eyes almost blind-ed! My neck nearly breaks! O! where is the man who invented the rein? O! where can he be? Do you think he was sane?

Governor Aldrich's three veto messages, to date, have all been directed, apparently, against Omaha interests. Just where judgment prevails and where prejudice comes in is not wholly apparent.
