325,000 IN ONE YEAR

THE IMMIGRATION TO CANADA SURPASSES ALL RECORD.

The returns recently issued by the Canadian Immigration Branch shows that upwards of 325,000 persons arrived in Canada during the past twelve months, declaring their intention of becoming settlers in that country. Of this number about 130,000 were from the United States, the balance being from the British Isles and Northern Europe. It will thus be seen that the stordy farming element that has gone forward from the United States is being splendidly supplemented by an equally sturdy settlement from across the seas. The lure of Canadian wheat, oats, barley and flax grown on the rich prairie of Western Canada is constantly attracting more and more, and year by year the tide of immigrants to the Western Canada plains increases; there is no ebb to this tide. The Canadian authorities drinks and frozen dainties which he are not surprised at the number from the United States being as large as it is but they did not look for so large an immigration from the old countries. #### Love of Books Starves Cobbler

DETROIT, MICH.-"Spark" is his name. He is only a little yellow dog. He feels pretty bad, for his master has left him forever. "Spark" has been the sole companion of James Pyke, cobbler, since his wife died, four years ago, but James became so infirm that he was taken to the Arnold home and "Spark" left behind.

When Mrs. Pyke was alive the couple lived in a cottage on Myrtle, near Twelfth street, and with the money Pyke earned mending old shoes and his pension, they had the home nearly paid for. Then Mrs. Pyke

It was Pyke's love for books that led to the loss of his home. Agents knew when his pension came, and would come up to the little shop in Twelfth later to send him to the soldiers' street to display their goods. James could not resist, and bought-and bought. Payments lapsed, and at last the house was lost. For about three with encyclopedias and "Spark," his only companion. Pyke is 75 and grew too occupied in reading to do much work. All his pension money went to pay for books-a little literary revel. step, refusing to be coazed away.

He ate less and less. and a little milk sustained him for a day. Neighbors brought him things occasionally and tried to convince him his health was more important than books, but James is an Englishman, born in Kent.

Pyke became weaker, and finally was obliged to apply to O. M. Pos post, G. A. R., and the post decided to place him in the Arnold home and home.

James said he wanted to remain where he was. "I can't leave 'Sparks' and my books," he said, patyears Pyke lived in the shop and its ting the dog, his eyes roving over the one room, four by six feet, crowded cherished volumes; but the post officers persuaded and at last James successful results I obtained by the use of the Cuticura Remedies. For several years my scalp was very badly affected with dandruff and scales. My scalp itched terribly at times and my hair fell out. My coat collar would be actually white with the dandruff that had fallen from my head. My profession being that of a barber, I was particular about having my hair in good condition, and was also in a position to try many lotions, etc., for the scalp. These had little or no effect. I had heard so much about the Cuticura Remedies that I resolved to try them. I shampooed my head with Cuticura Soap twice a week and after drying my head thoroughly, I anointed parts of my scalp with Cuticura Ointment. I was pleased from the outset, and continued to keep up this treatment. To think that only three cakes of Cuticura Soap and one and one-half boxes of Cuticura Ointment rid my head of this annoying trouble made me feel quite contented. I have now got a thick growth of hair and I am never troubled with any dandruff or itching of the scalp. There Remedies cured me. I frequently recommend them to my customers, and they think a great deal of them." (Signed) John F. Williams, 307 Norfolk Street, Dorchester, Boston, Mass., July 28, 1910.
