WE LEAD IN THE HAYING WORLD
Our Patented, Extension Arm, Stacker, is the marvel of the world. You can stack and handle more hay at a less cost and with greater convenience with our stacker, than with any other on the market.
THERE IS NONE JUST AS GOOD.
The stacker extending after it is half way up lightens the load and makes a uniform draft from the start. The cable used in place of a rope is a feature you cannot afford to overlook. Our Patented Sweep Ekes and Flatiron Mowers, all made in Denver, are well worth your investigation. Full descriptive matter will be mailed you on request. $1.00 purchase certificate, and souvenir, sent free if you mention this paper.
