An unusual interesting program was held in the Congregational church Sunday. The occasion was children's day and both the morning and evening services were given over to the celebration of this day. The morning session was interesting but the evening program given by the Sunday school scholars was extremely pleasing. We believe that no better program was ever given in the city. The children showed that they had been most carefully trained and there was not a hitch nor a pause in the entire evening. The choir sang extra fine music and altogether it was a splendid service.

Mayor Fox has constructed a dam just below the intake across the creek and henceforth all creek water will be pumped direct from the creek and not from the north well. This will be beneficial in two ways, first, it will insure better creek water and second, it will increase the flow in the south well. When the water is held in the creek it filters thru the sand into the south well and causes a considerable increase in the flow. Several years ago when there was a water scare a dam was placed across the creek so that there would be plenty of water in case of fire and the result was much to the surprise of all that the increase in the well was nearly enough for all needs.

Sheriff Selvers of Beaver City, caught two crooks, Charles Leroy and Dan Cummins, who were charged with having robbed a house at Edison Decoration Day, at Superior, and they were taken to Nelson and landed in jail. Saturday evening he started for Beaver City with them on No. 15. While they were in jail at Nelson they planned to kill the sheriff at Orleans and make their escape. A prisoner in the jail heard their plans and informed Sheriff Jones, who immediately notified Sheriff Hedge of this city and Oliver met No. 15 when it arrived Saturday evening to inform Sheriff Selvers. They searched the criminals and found a 41 automatic revolver tucked away in one of the prisoners' boots.
