LESTER

Mrs. Charlie Fry and children are spending a few days with her parents.

Orlie Cockrell and Miss Nell Cockrell spent Sunday at Connie Rasser's. Mr. and Mrs. John Holcomb called on Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fry Sunday afternoon.

Joe Blair of Lincoln, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Blair, returned home Friday. Miss Lena Rasser returned home Friday. She has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charlie Fry, near Guide Rock.

Lue Bergfeld has rented the Charlie Platt farm for next year, formerly Ed. Seaton's place. Mr. Seaton and wife will spend the winter in California.

Quite a number attended the show at Hastings Thursday. The day was fine. Some of our boys didn't get back, but they could not blame it on the rain this time.

COWLES

Eighty-one ballots were cast at the primary election Tuesday.

Miss Hildreth of Trenton, Nebraska, came in Tuesday for a visit with relatives.

Prof. Gregory came in from Hastings Tuesday to be with us and cast his ballot.

Dwight Johnson came home Tuesday from Lincoln, where he had been on business.

W. W. Ritchey, who had been in Illinois attending the last sad rites of his brother, came home Tuesday.

There will be an auto meet in Cowles, Thursday. Everybody interested in good roads should be here.

George Hoit and R. B. Thompson went to Hastings Monday to see a traction engine and plow in operation. This outfit plows fifteen acres per day with a 15-horsepower engine, with two men employed.

The Cowles base ball club defeated the Inavale club on the Red Cloud grounds Saturday by a score of 4 to 5.

Mrs. Thomas Paul was taken to the sanitarium at Hastings Tuesday. Her son Earl accompanied her. She is some better.

Ernest Terrill is having a severe time with blood poison in his lower limbs. It started by coming in contact with poison ivy.

GARFIELD

George Harris hauled four loads of hogs to market.

Archie Harris is working for Will Fisher this week.

Ab Potter is working for Gardner Stanser this week.

Water, water—nothing but water in Garfield for a week.

George Smith spent Saturday night and Sunday in Red Cloud.

Guy Barnes and wife visited at the home of Grant Shidler Sunday.

Al Smith and family visited at the home of Harry Harris Sunday.

Ed Cray of Guide Rock was a pleasant caller on Windmill Row Sunday.

Chris Hansen and sons hauled a car load of fat hogs to Red Cloud Tuesday.

Most of the Garfield boys are going to Hastings Thursday to see the Buffalo Bill show.

The high water killed lots of corn on the river bottom, but some will have a nice crop of corn anyway.

The bottom road is all right for travel again, except that it is muddy in some places and rough in others.

The roads are bad since the rains. No good roads except going straight up, and not many traveling in that direction.
