

The Great Fight of Our Ancestors For Independence

in 1776 was successful because of their love for home. That was the greatest home-building campaign ever launched in any country and its momentum is still carrying us along the same road, because we all know the home is "the backbone of our Nation." In other words, it's our platform—regardless of party—and because of the sacred feeling we have for our homes the planning and building of one gives all full, red-blooded Americans a pleasure almost beyond control. We're probably over enthusiastic about this home-building business, because we have been careful to observe the good effect a nice home will have on a family. To help make them attractive we have been extremely careful in the selection of all our building material, and we want you to see our stock. The time to build is now.

The continuous "best agricultural exhibit shown at any fair in the United States" bids fair to again enjoy that distinction at Lincoln, September 4th to 8th. Over $4,000.00 was paid out on agricultural exhibits at the 1910 fair and a greater premium list is offered this year. The feature of this department is the County Collective Exhibits—each of the Eastern, Central and Western portions of the state competing against that particular section, so that no unjust competition on account of climatic conditions or altitude has to be met. Mr. William James of Dorchester, who has made such a success of this department in the past, is again the superintendent for the year 1911. Make your county collective entry direct to him.

Guide Rock I. O. O. F. Visit Red Cloud Lodge

Last Monday evening a jolly party of Guide Rock Odd Fellows autotored to Red Cloud for a visit with the Ben Adhamites. In the party were: Fred Coons, C. E. Amack, John Hamilton, John Shultz, L. W. Ely, G. A. Crow, George Hagan, Henry Claybaugh, E. R. Cray, Frank Fisher, Dan Imhoff, Charles Imhoff, Emil Imhoff, E. R. Booth, W. T. Coons, L. A. Krause, G. B. McCall and Wash Million.

The party came up to boost for the big I. O. O. F. celebration to be held at Guide Rock all day next Wednesday, August 23. A cordial invitation was extended to the citizens of Red Cloud to attend, and the boosters received ample assurance that the county seat would send a big delegation.
During the session of the lodge L. A. Krause, of the Guide Rock delegation, entertained those present with some excellent selections upon his "little German band," as the Guide Rockers playfully call Mr. Krause's autoharp.
After adjournment, the members of the local lodge and their guests repaired to the Bon Ton cafe, where ice cream and "smokes" were enjoyed. The boosters returned to Guide Rock thoroughly convinced that Red Cloud would be present to help them enjoy their big day.

Hotel Royal Adds a "Shower Bath"

Roy Oatman, proprietor of the Hotel Royal, is nothing if not enterprising. In addition to his already complete equipment, he has recently added a "shower bath." The first administration of the "bath" was an impromptu affair and was pulled off Sunday evening, the recipients not even being guests of the hotel. It appears that a select crowd of local sports had congregated in the rear of the Polinsky building and, just as one of the party was uttering the mystic words "come seven," an upstairs window of the hotel opened and something less than seven gallons of real wet water was precipitated upon the unsuspecting bunch. It is said the air was blue in that neighborhood for quite a while. It is probably a good thing for the perpetrator of the joke that the city marshal was not around, as he might have been arrested for his playfulness.

Tepee Changes Hands.

O. E. Hughes disposed of the Tepee theatre Monday to Geo. J. Warren, the former proprietor. Mr. Hughes has made an enviable reputation in conducting the Tepee and the citizens and business men of Red Cloud are sorry to lose him from their midst. Mr. Hughes contemplates going into business with his brother Frank at Hastings, in the automobile business. Mr. Hughes has the best wishes of friends in his new venture.
Mr. Warren, the new proprietor, needs no introduction to the people of Red Cloud, as his former policy will be again in vogue at the Tepee.

Lebanon Anniversary.

The big anniversary at Lebanon is only a few days away, August 24, 25 and 26. They promise a free high class vaudeville performance equal to those given in city parks. Six ball games for a purse of $500, band concerts, balloon ascensions and many other entertaining features. The Lebanon Advancement association backs this entertainment. Don't miss it.
