

MOB RULE AT DOCKS

STRIKE AT LONDON TAKES ON A TROUBLOUS ASPECT.

SIGNS OF FAMINE IN EATABLES

Tons of Eatables are Spoiling at the Wharfs, But No One to Move Them—Calling Out Troops Seems Inevitable.

London.—The neighborhood of the docks is practically under mob rule, with the result that there was such a dwindling of food supplies that the metropolis expected something akin to what might happen if a hostile foreign force should succeed in interrupting Great Britain's trade routes.

The only quarter where relief was expected was Billingsgate. There the striking fish porters obtained all they wished and returned to work.

Thousands of tons of fruit, vegetables and provisions are rotting on the wharves and in the railway freight depots. Unless they can be moved soon, they threaten to endanger the general health.

Attempt to Rescue Leader. Juarez, Mex.—A body of liberals attempted to rescue J. M. Rangel, the liberal leader and a follower named Eava, near the Jewish hospital Thursday morning.

The attempted rescue of the men was frustrated by the guards on duty at the hospital and the liberals were repulsed.

Awakens from Long Sleep. Effingham, Ill.—After several days of investigation physicians now declare that the fourteen weeks' trance from which Miss Hazel Schmidt, daughter of John Schmidt of Vandalia, Ill., awakened Friday was brought on by a strained nerve in the brain and the tension of the nerve tissue was caused by excitement or worry.

Getting Ready for Registration. Ualermo, S. D.—Although the opening of the Fort Berthold Indian reservation is nearly two weeks away, hundreds of people, both men and women, are already arriving here to look over these lands, which are considered among the finest agricultural lands in North Dakota.

Washington

President Taft will veto the New Mexico-Arizona statehood resolution as passed by the senate.

The free list bill and the wool tariff bill are in the hands of Senator La Follette and Representative Underwood.

President Taft has sent to the senate the nomination of Albert Saylor to be receiver of public moneys, at Seattle.

The vortex of legislation this week centers on the tariff revision bills that are expected to emerge from conference and committee.

Speaker Clark Monday gave a luncheon in compliment to the fourteen democratic members of the house ways and means committee.

President Taft has extended to Japan, through the nation's guest, Admiral Count Togo, an invitation to join the United States, Great Britain and France in the great world movement for international peace.

President Taft has signed the reapportionment bill, under which the house of representatives is increased from 391 to 433 members, with two more in Arizona and New Mexico are admitted to the union.

Both the senate and house leaders express confidence that an agreement will be reached on the wool and free list bills. There is considerable opposition to the cotton tariff revision bill, largely from the Carolina cotton manufacturers.

What possibly was the last chance to get pension legislation through the house at this session was lost when Speaker Clark sustained a point of order made by Representative Fitzgerald against the Anderson invalid pension bill.

Senator La Follette and Chairman Underwood of the house ways and means committee, who have undertaken to reconcile the difference between the senate and the house on the wool and the farmers' free list bill for the full conference committee, are in an unquestioned deadlock, with the possibility of remaining so and thus forcing an adjournment of the session without final action on either of these measures.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies have done for me. For two years I suffered. The doctors said I had tumors, and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation, and your Sanative Wash relieved me. Your Liver Pills have no equal as a cathartic. Any one wishing proof of what your medicines have done for me can get it from any druggist or by writing to me. You can use my testimonial in any way you wish, and I will be glad to answer letters."

Mrs. CHRISTINA REED, 105 Mound St., Peoria, Ill.

Another Operation Avoided.

New Orleans, La.—"For years I suffered from severe female troubles. Finally I was confined to my bed and the doctor said an operation was necessary. I gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial first, and was saved from an operation."—Mrs. LILY PEYRON, 1111 Kerlerec St., New Orleans, La.

The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for those distressing feminine ills from which so many women suffer.
