Enthusiastic Teachers

Attending Institute

The Webster County Teachers' Institute opened last Monday, with an unusually large enrollment. The first day ninety-eight attended, and all have not yet arrived on account of the bad roads due to the heavy rains. The enrollment is expected to be much larger.

This is one of the most beneficial and instructive institutes ever held in Webster county, because all the teachers are very enthusiastic, and due also to our practical, helpful county superintendent; no means have been spared to meet the needs of the teachers.

Something special has been planned for each day in chapel, consisting of music, talks, etc.

Tuesday morning the teachers were especially favored with an instructive and entertaining talk on household economics by Miss Gertrude Coon.

Miss Bernice O'Kief, institute instructor in primary plans and handwork, is a graduate of Peru Normal and attended the State University one year. Miss O'Kief has taught two years at the O'Neil Junior Normal, three years at Fairmont and during the ensuing year will teach the second grade in one of the city schools of Lincoln. She has a pleasing personality and with her simple, unassuming ways has won the hearts of the Webster county teachers.

Fred M. Hunter, head of the School of Agriculture at Lincoln, who was here last year, was most cordially welcomed. Every teacher who attended last year went away feeling greatly benefited by his instruction and was more than glad that his services could be secured another year. Mr. Hunter has been superintendent of the schools at Fairmont, Norfolk and Ashland, principal of the junior normal, president of the Superintendents' and Principals' Association, and president of the Nebraska Schoolmasters' Club. Superintendent Hunter has put his able brain at work accomplishing great things for the teachers of the various institutes in which he instructs. His magnetic personality has won for him the admiration and confidence of all our teachers.

The reception given the teachers Tuesday evening, by Miss Day and the resident teachers, was a decided success. On account of the cold, damp evening it was held in the high school building, instead of on the lawn as originally planned. The attendance was large and everyone reported a rousing good time. There was nothing formal about this—it was a get-acquainted affair and everyone entered into it with zest.

The teachers believe that Rev. Tompkins has mistaken his calling; that instead of the ministry it would be much more profitable for him to take up the profession of photography.

Mr. Hunter and Miss O'Kief presented the perverse side of matrimonial life, expecting the teachers to look at it from this standpoint. Do they expect Webster county to produce more old maid teachers?

Last evening an interesting session of the teachers was held at the Methodist church. Eugene Knox, head of the department of expression at the Nebraska Wesleyan university, was the leader. There was a good attendance and the meeting was greatly enjoyed by all.

Following are the names of those who had enrolled up to last night:

Hazel Williams	Retta McDowell
Gertrude Blackledge	Mrs. A. J. Gross
Edith Schuman	Clara Burgess
Elsie Miksch	Daisy McWilliams
May Thomas	Anna Clatte
Beryl Laird	Bessie Thomas
	Marie Hollister

WEDDING BELLS

Gum-Gum.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ed Amack, at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday evening. The contracting parties were Miss Ruth Gough and Mr. Clarence Gum. Rev. Tompkins was the officiating clergyman who tied the nuptial knot, pronouncing the ceremony which united the lives of these estimable young people of our city. The wedding was a quiet one, witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the bride, and a few intimate friends. Congratulations followed, with merry jest and cheerful conversation. An elegant lunch was served and after expressing sincere wishes for the happiness and prosperity of the newly wedded couple the guests departed for their homes. Mr. and Mrs. Gum left on No. 14 Wednesday morning for Greenville, Ill., where Mr. Gum's parents live and where they will visit for a short time. From there they will go to Milwaukee, Wis., to make their future home.

Jensen-Robinson.

Last Thursday evening at 8:30, at the Holland Hotel, occurred the wedding of Miss Clara Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Jensen, to Mr. Jay Robinson. Both young people are well known, the bride having had charge of the dining room in her father's hotel, while Mr. Robinson has for more than a year been engaged in telephone and electric light work in this vicinity.

Cecil Crowell Has Leg Broken in a Runaway

Cecil, the 14-year-old son of H. H. Crowell, northwest of Red Cloud, had his leg broken last Friday. Gangrene set in, and on Monday it became necessary to amputate the leg above the knee. It was thought this morning he would recover. It seems the lad was raking hay, when the team became frightened and ran to the house after overturning the rake and throwing the boy to the ground. Search was immediately instituted and Cecil was soon found lying in the field with his leg broken.

A good road to a good town is a good thing.
