HOLD A CONFERENCE

BUT THE RAILROAD SITUATION REMAINS UNCHANGED.

INVOLVES 25,000 SHOPMEN

Harriman Lines Refuse to Recognize Federated Labor Organizations—Questions of Wages Not Involved.

Chicago.—A long conference between Vice-President Julius Kruttschnitt of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads and J. W. Kline, international president of the blacksmiths' union was held here Thursday without any steps being taken toward a settlement of differences involving 25,000 shopmen employed by the Harriman lines.

Both Vice-President Kruttschnitt and President Kline declined to discuss what was done at the conference, but it is said that the subject of the railroad's refusal to recognize the federated labor organizations instead of individual unions was considered at length. It is said that Vice-President Kruttschnitt followed instructions of directors of the lines in refusing to yield to the demands of the shopmen for recognition of the federated organization.

Washington, D. C.—For the purpose of controlling the next democratic national convention, with the view to the nomination of a progressive candidate for the presidency, together with the adoption of a progressive platform, the democratic federation of precinct clubs was organized here at a meeting held in the democratic conference room of the senate. The movement was initiated by Senators Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma and George E. Chamberlain of Oregon, and was attended by nearly all the democrats in congress that remained in town for the final adjournment. All were in hearty accord with the plan.

Washington, D. C.—Secretary Wilson has given it out that he has fully decided to speak at Lincoln, September 5, at the state fair. Much attention is being directed among politicians here to this coming speech along with the speech Judge Norris will make there September 6. It is generally recognized here that it will mark the first big gun of the Taft-La Follette fight in the middle west. The fact that Wilson is going to be allowed by the president to make such an important speech is taken to indicate the latter's purpose to get rid of him immediately.

INFLAMMATION AND PAIN

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Creston, Iowa.—“I was troubled for a long time with inflammation, pains in my side, sick headaches and nervousness. I had taken so many medicines that I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. A friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it restored me to health. I have no more pain, my nerves are stronger and I can do my own work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me after everything else had failed, and I recommend it to other suffering women.”

—Mrs. Wm. SEALS 605 W. Howard St., Creston, Iowa.

Thousands of uncollected and genuine testimonials like the above prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made exclusively from roots and herbs.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. For 30 years she has been helping sick women in this way, free of charge. Don't hesitate—write at once.

Hard to Find.

“Decided where you are going on your vacation yet?”

“No; can't seem to find the right spot.”

“What sort of a place are you looking for?”

“A place where my pocketbook can enjoy a vacation as well as its owner.”

The Real Thing.

“Say, mister, if you throw three cents up in the air I kin ketch 'em all before they come down every time.”

“Humph! That is nothing but a catch-penny scheme.”

An Experiment.

Nurse—What is the matter?

Johnny—The baby is a fake; I threw him on the floor, and he didn't bounce a bit.

A Thirst for Information.

“Say, pa?”

“What is it?”

“Who made the after-dinner speeches at Belshazzar's feast?”

A Large Package Of Enjoyment—

Post Toasties

Served with cream, milk or fruit—fresh or cooked.

Crisp, golden-brown bits of white corn—delicious and wholesome—

A flavour that appeals to young and old.
