GARFIELD

A fine Nebraska rain fell here for three days the first of the week. Clyde Bowen and George Smith were over the river Saturday after cattle. George Drake bought a span of mules from Clyde Bowen one day last week. Smith Bros. bought twenty five head of cows last week. Muriel and Ethel Fisher visited in Red Cloud Saturday night and Sunday. Will Fisher cut Jack Barnes' millet with his binder on Tuesday. Miss Ella White is visiting with Mrs. Omer Wolfe this week. The rainy weather put a stop to the sowing of wheat for a few days. Col. Wiggins hauled his hogs to market Friday. Julius Wobberman is home from his trip.

Will Fisher is filling in the cement bridge on the bottom road this week between showers. Jack Barnes is visiting with his daughter Mrs. George McKinney north of the river this week. Guy Barnes and wife and Frank Amaok and wife called on Joe Mudd and family on Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Rawls, a baby girl. Mother and daughter are doing fine but, John, you had ought to see him. Dynamite Tom struck water at Jack Barnes in what they called a dry well and now he will dig a well for Chris Hansen this week.
