

REED OUTLINES HIS PLATFORM

"Greatest Good to Greatest Number, With Least Possible Injury to Anyone."

CANDIDATE FOR U. S. SENATOR

WILLIS E. REED, Democrat, has outlined his platform for the coming year. It is a platform of the greatest good to the greatest number, with the least possible injury to anyone. It is a platform of the greatest good to the greatest number, with the least possible injury to anyone.

The greatest good to the greatest number, with the least possible injury to anyone, is the principle which the following is a part of. No national emergency, better enforcement of existing laws, lower the tariff to a reasonable basis, construction and improvement of highways and public property throughout the nation, at national expense, during periods of serious depression, that there may be public employment for the unemployed, if it is a means to end poverty, his method by honest, accepting charity, or resorting to crime, and, upon receipt of a national business water privilege, carrying it, private and referendum, and put persons to those who serve our country in time of peace, make a member of the railway commission of each state ex officio a member of the Interstate railway commission to represent the state affected when rates are to be changed in any manner, that we may have one rate instead of forty-nine as we now have, enlarging the powers and duties of such commission. And, that we may go farther than the physical valuation of common carriers, we should require the commercial valuation of all common carriers. The law relating to rebates should be so modified as to release the innocent public who, at present are legally charged with knowledge of rates which, on account of their multiplicity, it is impossible for them to know. It is better that the railway be forced to lose where they have made undercharges in freight or passenger rates than to subject the innocent public to higher rates or criminal prosecutions, as is the case under the present law. Conservation of all national resources; election of United States senators by direct vote of the people; international arbitration as well as between labor and capital; such remedial trust legislation as will best relieve the public from unjust exactions, and so pass, and clear that honest business efforts may not be thwarted through a misconception of the law. The rights of the state should be carefully guarded and in no manner surrendered in violation of the federal constitution and its amendments. The national incorporation act, as proposed, would soon become a serious menace to the general welfare of the people and the rights of the states, is an undemocratic measure and should be defeated. The Aldrich currency bill is equally threatening, injurious and unjust and should never be permitted to become a law. Each proposed measure should be considered fairly and justly with a view of improvement upon the structure of our laws and in the administration of justice, and it should make no difference from what source or party the measure is advanced, if it is a good one it should be supported, if bad it should be rejected.

WILLIS E. REED

(Democratic Candidate for United States Senator)

If nominated and elected I shall do all in my power to carry out the foregoing platform. WILLIS E. REED.

These doctors are considered by many former patients among America's leading stomach and nerve specialists, and are experts in the treatment of chronic diseases and so great and wonderful have been their results that in many cases it is hard indeed to find the dividing line between skill and miracle.

Diseases of the stomach, intestines, liver, blood, skin, granulated eyelids, nerves, heart, spleen, kidneys, or bladder, rheumatism, dropsy, sciatia, diabetes, bed wetting, leg ulcers, weak lungs and those afflicted with long standing, deep seated, chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of the family physician, should not fail to call.

They were among the first in America to earn the name of the "Bloodless Surgeons", by doing away with knife, with blood and with all pain in the successful treatment of these dangerous diseases.

If you have kidney or bladder troubles bring a two-ounce bottle of your urine for chemical analysis and microscopic examination.

Deafness often has been cured in sixty days.

No matter what your ailment may be, no matter what others may have told you, no matter what experience you may have had with other physicians, it will be to your advantage to see them at once. Have it forever settled in your mind. If your case is incurable they will give you such advice as may relieve and stay the disease. Do not put off this duty you owe yourself or friends or relatives who are suffering because of your sickness, as a visit this time costs you nothing.

A. M. MORRISSEY
Candidate for the Democratic Nomination for Attorney General, at the Primaries April 19th, 1912.

From the spring of 1898 to the fall of 1911, Mr. Morrissey was engaged in the practice of the law at Valentine, the county seat of Cherry county, and during the first four years of that time, he was the county attorney of that county. At the expiration of his second term, he declined to hold the office longer and engaged in private practice. As prosecuting officer of this big county he met and tried cases against many of the foremost lawyers of the state, who had been called in to defend in criminal cases. In successfully coping with these big men of the profession, his reputation as a trial lawyer spread into the adjoining counties and for the past ten years he has been rated as one of the most successful men at the bar. In the summer of 1911 he gave up his residence at Valentine and removed to Lincoln, where he is now engaged in the practice of his profession.

He was a delegate to the last democratic national convention and has a wide acquaintance with the party workers of the state. His friends believe that his nomination will greatly strengthen the state ticket, as he is the only man who has fled who is representative of the western end of the state, and this, together with his high standing as a lawyer, will help to round out a ticket that will appeal to the voters next fall.

He is a native of the state of New York, but has lived for twenty years in western Nebraska and may be said to be one of the pioneers of the state.
