Farm Loans

There are several reasons for seeing J. H. Bailey for a Farm loan and here they are.
He is sole agent for Trevett Mattis & Baker.
This company is here every day in the year ready for business and not here this week and gone next. They loan on any farm having the value in it improved or unimproved. You don't wait from two to four months for your money but surely get it on the day called for. They give the best option in the market.

Big Ben

has something to say to people who like to get up promptly in the morning.

He guarantees to call them on the dot just when they want and either way they want, with one prolonged, steady call or with successive gentle rings.

And he guarantees to do it day after day and year after year, if you only have him oiled every year or so.

I've known him ever since he was "that high" and I'll vouch for everything he says.

JOHN J. BAYNE, Pastor.

We notice by the Washington papers that Oliver Runchey has again demonstrated that he is entitled to the Pacific coast championship of light wrestlers. On the twentysecond of last month before the Portland athletic club he threw his challenger, Perry, the first fall in 1:58 and the second fall in 1:53.

The band program given by Red Cloud's Cornet Band, under the leadership of Prof. Betz, on last Friday evening was a highly creditable affair, and one worthy of a much larger audience than that which greeted them. The band has made great headway under the present leadership, and is worthy of the support of the entire community.

The Chief office this week completed the new 1912 directory for the Farmers' Independent Telephone Company. The directory shows a considerable increase of business during the past year, a large number of new phones having been installed, and also is a fair sample of the high-grade work turned out at this place. They are now ready for distribution, and if you have not as yet received one, you can do by calling on the secretary, Mr. O. C. Teel.

After a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. George F. Gale, Miss Clara Burgess left Thursday morning on No. 13 for Holdrege, where she will begin work as deputy for the Royal Neighbors. Her territory consists of Nebraska west of Franklin county and part of eastern Colorado. Her home is in Red Cloud and she has just finished her third year as a successful school teacher in Webster county.—Saturday's Franklin News.

"Oats sowing will begin this week and from now on seeding will proceed in earnest," said A. F. Hartwell of Inavale, Neb., today. Mr. Hartwell came down on a three section train making up 130 carloads of live stock which came from the Republican river valley country, reaching Kansas City at four o'clock this morning. "No time will be lost from now on," said Mr. Hartwell. "It is late, and farmers will put the full force into the fields, and rush seeding along. We have been held back by bad weather, but as the ground now works well, we can soon make up for lost time, and in the end lose nothing from this delay."—Kansas City Drover's Telegram.

Methodist Ministerial Association Holds Meeting

The Ministerial Association of the west district of the Methodist church held its annual sessions in this city Tuesday and Wednesday. All the meetings were largely attended and this session is numbered as one of the most successful gatherings of the kind ever held in the state. The program began Tuesday evening at 6:30 with a men's banquet in the parlors of the church. The Ladies Aid furnished an elaborate four course feast and all agreed that not the slightest detail was overlooked. At this banquet J. D. Wright D. D. was the guest of honor.

Wednesday morning the devotional service was led by B. W. Marsh after which J. D. M. Buckner and G. P. Tritts discussed "The Place of the Church in Civic Life" at some length. Then followed addresses by O. G. Ponath and W. H. Jackson on "Evangelism, the Old and the New." The morning session closed with a discussion on the "Relation of the Sunday School Board to the Local School." This discussion was led by A. M. Steele, H. W. Cope and A. G. Forman.

The afternoon program began with devotionals led by A. V. Wilson after which "The Problem of the Country Church" was discussed by J. Calvert, B. F. Hutelins and R. B. E. Hill, after which followed a business session.

In the evening a popular lecture was given by S. T. Bartle D. D., of Grand Island on Palestine. This lecture was illustrated with one hundred slides made from pictures that the lecturer made while traveling in that country some years ago on horse-back. The views were exceptionally fine and the speaker had a happy way in telling what he saw and heard in that ever strange country. He showed that the great East never changes, that conditions there today are practically the same as they were in the time of our Lord. The pictures showing the rugged road from Jerusalem to Jerico gave one a vivid idea of the dangers that threaten the traveler even today as he goes from one city down to the other. It is two thousand feet down in a distance of twenty miles and an excellent place for robbers and brigands to fall upon the unprotected.

These robbers still abide among these rocks and a stranger needs an escort if he would make the journey in safety. There were pictures of Jacob's well, the sleeping Presbyterian minister, and other well known scenes. Also the mount where Jesus took his disciples was shown and here the speaker gave an interesting description of this part of Palestine.

These delightful views and this instructive lecture should be given to a larger audience and we suggest to the Chautauque association that they make arrangements to have it repeated this summer in the Chautauque tent. The church was filled to overflowing but there is no reason why this lecture should not be given to three or four thousand people this summer.

The ministers attending this association were a jolly set of men and showed that at work or play they were capable of holding their own. Among them were several expert tennis players and "between acts" they kept the court warm. Red Cloud extends a cordial invitation to each and every one to come again.

WHEN THEY WENT BACK HOME
Humorist Records Some Surprises That Attended the Occasion of Popular Celebration.

During a recent Old Home Week in an up-state village the following "never-will-amount-to-anthings" were in attendance:
John Wilson Clarke, who was always too lazy to do the chores, came up from New York in his big seven-passenger car. On account of pressing work he could stay but a few hours.
Ex-Gov. Silby Kirkwood, who was naturally thick-headed and half-baked in his youth, stopped over in his private car to see his old home.
Dr. Willus G. Dyer, one of the best-known surgeons in the country, called the town fool when a boy, dropped in and left enough money for a town library.

Miss Caroline Jensen Atwood, too stupid to learn in the old red school-house, now a popular authoress and playwright visited her relatives.
Charlie Druke, the spendthrift, shut up his Wall street office long enough to attend.
One of the most noticeable features of the whole celebration was the absence of the men and women who gave much promise of originality and worth during their youth.

Lack of memory in their old age accounts for the fact that not one of the old fogies present ever said anything but good of anybody, including the successful boys present.—Don. Cameron Shafer in Judge.

Advantage of Cheerfulness.
There are those who sneer at the cheerful philosopher and call him a cheerful idiot, but the cheerful idiot seldom goes adrift in his mind. Those who constantly travel the dark side of melancholy street are the ones who forget their real name and what they are here for.
